Talks On Railroad Dispute

Resumed Today When Labor Advisor Calls Company Spokesmen, And Union Heads

WASHINGTON, May 28 —(AP)— The White House opened a new effort to settle the railroad labor dispute today.

John R. Steelman, President Truman's labor adviser, summoned spokesmen for the railroad companies and heads of the three unions involved—the engineers, firemen, and switchmen.

A White House spokesman said this was something Steelman "has been working on for some days."

The White House move came after Justice T. Alan Goldsborough postponed until June 11 a court battle between the government and the three unions over whether he should issue an injunction that would prevent a rail strike indefinitely.

The opposing sides in the dispute, who failed to settle their differences in four days of negotiations here last week, met with Steelman separately at the White House.

No Announcement

There was no immediate announcement as to what proposals were made or whether there was any progress.

When delaying the injunction hearings, Goldsborough extended until June 11 a temporary order against a strike.

The government took over the railroads May 10 when Goldsborough issued the temporary ban against the strike the three unions had set for May 11.

The unions—the Locomotive Engineers, Locomotive Firemen & Enginemen, and Switchmen—filed a motion yesterday to kill the existing ban on the ground that Goldsborough had no right to issue it and president had no right to order seizure of the railroads.

Today Goldsborough ruled that this motion shall be deemed the unions' answer to the government motion to continue the injunction.

June 9 Deadline

He gave the Justice Department until June 5 to file briefs opposing the union motion. He gave the unions until June 9 to file a reply to the government briefs.

Temporary restraining orders, which are issued without hearing, can be extended only once without consent of the defendents.

The unions' consent to today's extension was made with the understanding that it does not in any way affect their contentions that the order is illegal. The justice department also consented to Goldsborough's order.

The judge, after signing the extension, plunged into an extremely heavy schedule of divorce cases. If he had held the rail hearing today he would have been forced either to squeeze it in among these divorce cases or postpone them.

Break Tension In 'Phone Case

JEFFERSON CITY, May 28.—(AP)—The serious tension of the Southwestern Bell Telephone rate hearing was broken today as the utility's chief engineer, H. R. Fritz, wound up his cross examination with a joking reference to extended questioning on the company's depreciation reserve account.

Jerome Joffee, special utility counsel for Kansas City, quizzed him at length yesterday as to why over-accruals had occurred in the account.

The attorney brought up the subject again today, asking:

"Isn't it peculiar that for 17 years you should over-accrue this account and now when you have a rate case you say the depreciation reserve recommended by us is inadequate?"

"Mr. Joffee," Fritz replied, "I apologize for that over-accrual." He added that "an incident is not peculiar unless it is planned."

Plans for the proposed military aid to Iran were authorized before the Senate appropriations committee by John D. Jernegan, chief of the state department's division of Greek-Turkish-Iranian affairs.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Nuzum, center, who were married Thursday evening following the Smith-Cotton high school commencement, and their attendants Miss Gayle Scruton and Mr. Don Cook. The bride was before her marriage Miss Barbara Brimmer, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Harvey Brimmer, of the Dean apartments, and is a member of the 1948 graduating class. Mr. Nuzum is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Fred R. Nuzum, Route 5, Sedalia. (Lehmer Studio)

Barbara Brimmer, Graduate, Weds After Commencement

Climaxing the round of activities of the Smith-Cotton graduating class of 1948 was the marriage of one of its members, Miss Barbara Brimmer, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Harvey H. Brimmer, of the Dean apartments, immediately following the commencement evercises, Thursday night, to Mr. Fred Nuzum, son of Mr. and Mrs. Fred R. Nuzum, Route 5, Sedalia.

Accompanied by a group of her classmates who were members of the H. D. club and had been friends through school, other friends and relatives, the couple left the high school and went to the home of Rev. A. W. Kokendoffer, 908 South Ohio avenue, to be married.

Preceding the ceremony, Miss Mary Frances McCurdy sang "Always" and "Because," with Miss Ruth Ann Yunker as the accompanist. Both girls are also members of the graduating class.

Miss Gayle Scruton, another member of the class, was the bride's only attendant.

Bridegroom In Navy

The bride wore a street length pink dress with white accessories and her corsage was of orchids.

Miss Scruton was attired in a blue dress and her corsage was of gardenias.

Mr. Don Cook served Mr. Nuzum as best man. Both were members of the 1947 graduating class of Smith-Cotton high school.

The single ring service was read by Rev. A. W. Kokendoffer, who married the bride's parents twenty-six years ago. The couple left on a wedding trip to Omaha, Neb., and various places in Iowa, following the ceremony.

They will return to Sedalia and will then go to San Diego, where Mr. Nuzum, who is in the Navy, is stationed.

Neither Absent Nor Tardy in 12 Years

FULTON, Mo., May 28—(AP)—Marian Mirts has completed 12 years of school work without being absent or tardy.

The Fulton girl, who attended rural school for six years, had two close calls. While a fourth grade pupil in a rural school she became ill with smallpox. However, the other 19 pupils in the school contracted the disease at the same time and all continued to attend classes.

The next year she had mumps, but did not become sick until the day after school closed for the summer vacation.

Health Report Is Very Good

A report issued recently by the Missouri Division of Health should be reassuring to all persons who visit the Missouri State Fair this year August 22-29 inclusive.

The report, issued by R. M. James, M. D., director of the State Division of Health, discloses that during the 1947 fair not a single case of food poisoning occurred.

"During the entire period," reads the report, "there was not a single case of food poisoning admitted to the State Fair hospital, nor were there reports of any cases which could in any way be traced to food eaten on the fairgrounds. This record is a tribute to the cooperation of the State Fair officials who are requiring that permanent fairground buildings and fair concessionaires comply with the sanitation regulations of the Division of Health."

The Division of Health annually stations a mobile sanitation unit on the grounds during the Fair, and also gives free physical examinations for children starting before and extending into the fair. Examinations at the Fairgrounds this year are scheduled from Thursday, August 19 through Monday, August 23. Parents who wish their children to receive examinations should write for appointments to the State Division of Health, Jefferson City.

Methodist Minister Dies

HORNERSVILLE, Mo., May 28 —(AP)—The Rev. D. M. Margrave, Methodist minister here and at other places in southern Missouri, Illinois and Indiana for about 50 years, died at his home here late yesterday. He was 76.

Money In Clothes, Dies of Starvation —

NEW YORK, May 28.—(AP)—Herbert Tarbox was thrifty.

The 62-year-old former army sergeant often told the manager of the rooming house where he lived he could live for a day "on a doughnut, a cup of coffee and 10 cents worth of potatoes."

This afternoon, he collapsed on a street corner, and died seven hours later. Hospital attendants found $984 in currency sewn into his clothing. His bankbook indicated deposits of $1,238.

Chief cause of death was given as malnutrition.

100-Year-Old 'Jesse James' Flunked His Test, Says Judge

SACRAMENTO, Calif., May 28 —(AP)—The 100-year-old Oklahoman who claims he is Jesse James flunked his test, Justice of the Peace Toll Narramore declared today.

Narramore, born and reared in the area where the James brothers committed their depredations, had posed three key questions to the man in Lawton, Okla., who asserts he is Jesse James. Narramore said correct answers to the question would mean the man was James.

Only one question was answered positively, and that answer was wrong, Narramore said.

Narramore asked who was the operator of a horse-drawn ferry near the James home and the Oklahoman answered "Dick Philson."

"His answer of Dick Philson is utterly and completely incorrect," Narramore said. "The operator's name was John Bricksey — so there wasn't even a chance for confusion on that."

Did Not Remember

Narramore asked also what relative of James followed the outlaw with the idea of arresting him and collecting the reward money. The Oklahoman said he did not remember any such incident.

The third question was what month Cole Younger was discharged from the penitentiary and who met him at Independence, Mo. The Lawton man gave no answer to this

"Everyone around Independence was sure Jesse was dead," Narramore said, "and the inability of this Oklahoman to answer my questions just goes to prove it that much more—if any proof were needed."

Prof. Relieved Of His Duties On MU Faculty

Three Arrested Are Endeavoring To Furnish Bond

COLUMBIA, Mo., May 28—(AP) —E. K. Johnston, veteran professor of advertising at the University of Missouri here, in the Boone county jail, charged with sodomy was relieved of his university duties today "pending further determination of his position" by the University Board of Curators.

Dr. Frederick M. Middlebush, president of the University issued this stattment:

"In view of the nature and gravity of the charges that have been made against Professor E. K. Johnston, he has been relieved of his duties as a member of the university faculty pending further determination of his position by the Board of Curators."

Johnston and two other men were charged with sodomy yesterday in connection with what Prosecuting Attorney Howard B. Lang, Jr., called a "homosexual ring" were still in jail today. Johnston's attorney said the professor hoped to arrange to post $3500 bond today.

Highway Patrol on Job

In the meantime, Lang was in conference this morning with Col. Hugh Waggoner of the State Highway Patrol.

Althought Dr. Middlebush and Dean Frank L .Mott yesterday expressed shock at the disclosures of the existence of the homosexual ring, it was learned today that the presence of the ring was brought to the attention of University authorities some five weeks ago. At that time the authorities were told that there was reason to believe that a ring of 48 students and faculty members existed with a highly organized and well-developed social program.

It was also revealed that an attempt was made two years ago to uncover such a group on the campus, but that it had been impossible to obtain such evidence.

The other men, Willie Coots, 39, and Warren W. Heathman, 35, of Rolla, Mo., waived their preliminaries and are held for the June term of circuit court under bonds of $2,500 each.

Others Questioned

Several other persons were questioned yesterday by Lang but he said all of them have been released and no charges have been brought against any others except the three as a result of his six months investigation into abnormal sex orgies here and in other central Missouri towns.

The investigation, however, still was continuing. Col. Hugh Waggoner, State Highway Patrol superintendent, came here from Jefferson City to confer with county authorities. Yesterday Waggoner said, "I don't know how many more will be involved. It looks like it might be a pretty big thing."

Two Sign Statements

Coots is a gift shop employe and Heathman a war veteran and Veterans Administration on-the-job instructor.

Lang said both Coots and Heathman signed statements implicating Johnston in the "ring" in which at least a score of university of Missouri students and other residents of this university town have been involved.

Lang said Heathman told of "mad parties" at Johnston's apartment here and at a cabin near Salem, Mo., involving as many as 30 persons who gathered to indulge in homosexual practices.

Upon advice of his attorney Johnston refused to sign any statement, Lang said.

Faculty Head Surprised

Johnston recently served as acting dean of the Journalism school and has been a member of the Missouri faculty since 1924. He was on leave of absence for two years in that stretch to teach at other schools.

"This whole thing is quite a surprise to me," said Dr. Frederick A. Middlebush, president of the university, refusing to comment further last night.

Dr. Frank L. Mott, dean of the Journalism school expressed surprise and said "he (Johnston) has been an excellent teacher. x x x this whole thing is a terrific shock."

Wants Action On Housing

WASHINGTON, May 28.—(AP)—American Legion Commander James F. O'Neil said today congress has "fired a volley of blanks" on the nation's housing and defense problems.

The Legion chief said in a statement "public patience and time are running out." He added:

"Members of congress will feel the full force of public indignation if they fail to respond accordingly."

President Truman told his news conference yesterday he planned no further appeals to congress for action on housing legislation. He said he had stressed the need on four different occasions and the reason he advanced are still good.

A long-range housing measure has passed the Senate, but is being held up by the House banking committee, which has made no move to send it to the house floor.

Observe Memorial Day As One of Prayer

WASHINGTON, May 28—(AP)—President Truman today called on American citizens to make Memorial Day of 1948 the inspiration for "a mighty striving for peace."

Since the holiday falls on Sunday, Mr. Truman said, its observance should be one of prayer throughout the country that permanent peace may prevail among men.

Preparing New Order For Selling Cream

JEFFERSON CITY, May 28.—(AP)—Missouri farmers would have to bring their cream to town every four days to get top prices under an order being prepared today by Tom Douglass, state agriculture commissioner.

The order requires cream stations to class any cream over four days old as second grade. Second grade cream brings lower prices than top grade fresh cream.

Douglass said he expected to issue the order officially later today.

'Just on First Plateau,' Graduates Told

Speaker Tells Boys And Girls Dawn of A New Day is Ahead

At 8:00 o'clock Thursday evening the commencement exercises of the 1948 graduating class took place in the auditorium of Smith-Cotton high school.

The 190 members of the class were seated in their grey caps and gowns on the stage. The auditorium was draped in the school colors, gold and black. On the stage were baskets of flowers.

The invocation was given by Rev. William C. Bessmer.

The high school orchestra under the direction of J. T. Alexander played "Angelus" (from Scenes Pittoresque) by J. Massanet.

Paul A. Grigsby, of Granite City, Ill., gave the address, "The Dawn of a New Day." Mr. Grigsly was a former principal of Smith-Cotton. In his introductory remarks he stated that "education is truly an investment in people." He said that whether or not a graduate attends college or university his educational activities should not cease.

Just on Pleteau

"It may look to some graduates that everything is in their favor, yet the road may indeed be bleak and then the case may be just the opposite. But whatever takes place, the dawn of a new day is before them. They are only on the first plateau of their lives," he said.

Mary Frances Burlingame, accompanied by Ruth Ann Yunker, played a violin solo, "Call of the Plains," by Edwin Goldmark.

Joe Benson, principal of the school, presented Richard Brown, president of the senior student council, and Ralph Waters, president of the senior class.

"S" club awards went to Ruth Ann Yunker, most valuable senior girl, and Richard Brown, most valuable senior boy.

The Rotary club award went to Miss Yunker for outstanding achievement girl and to Bill Monsees for the same for boys.

Had Given Cooperation

Before presenting the senior class to the audience, Mr. Benson said he would like to say something to the class that was not customary. He said that in all his teaching years he believed this was the best class ever to leave Smith-Cotton. The class has always given its whole-hearted support to any school activity.

The class then stood and the valedictorian, Ruth Ann Yunker, and the salutatorian, Delta Mae Dunkin, were introduced.

The girls glee club sang "Now the Day Is Over" and the benediction was given by Rev. J. F. King.

Cheers But No Mention

SPRINGFIELD, Ill., May 28.—(AP)—Remarks praising President Truman won cheers from delegates to the Illinois Democratic state convention yesterday, but no action was taken to endorse or oppose his renomination.

U. S. Senator Scott W. Lucas of Illinois, in the convention's principal speech, lauded Mr. Truman, but did not mention the President's bid for another term. No attempt was made by delegates to bring up names of other possible candidates.

Making Plans For Swimming Pool Location

Recommend Having An Engineer Draft And Submit Plans

A. P. Green, Mexico, Mo., one of the trustees of the Mrs. Jennie Jaynes Lewis estate, was in Sedalia Thursday afternoon and met with Mayor Julian H. Bagby, members of the Bond Issue Citizens committee, park board, Herb Studer, chairman of the Public Buildings committee of the City Council. The meeting was held at the city hall.

The purpose was to discuss future plans for Liberty park. It was recommended a planning engineer be employed to draft plans to arrange the park so building and improvements could be made to accomodate Sedalia for the next 25 to 50 years.

The interest in the planning by Mr. Green and other trustees of the estate, is that Mrs. Lewis left to Sedalia a sum of money, estimated by Mr. Green now to be near $100,000, to be used for a community building or for recreation. Mrs. Lewis was the widow of the late Dr. Bransford Lewis, St. Louis, and she died about two years ago. She was a former Sedalian.

Engineers Here

R. B. Reeves, Chanute, Kas., and Truman Schlup, Kansas City, Kas. engineers for the swimming pool project were also in attendance, and considerable time was spent in discussion of the location of the new swimming pool.

Lack of necessary materials and equipment for the type of swimming pool to be built here prevents construction for its use this season. However, Mr. Reeves said, as soon as the location for the pool is determined, construction will be started and the pool will be ready for the next season.

Also attending the meeting were E. M. Stafford, also a trustee of the estate, George R. Wilkerson, a friend of Mr. Green, T. W. Cloney II, and Charles M. Van Dyne, members of the Junior Advisory Board of the trustees.

Insurance, or Bonds, New Law

ST. LOUIS, May 28—(AP)—Chief of Police Jeremiah O'Connell today issued orders to the Yellow Cab company ,the Baden Cab company and 14 Negro taxicab firms to cease operations. The order involves about half of those on the streets.

The Public Service Board informed O'Connell the companies have not filed policies of insurance or bond under a new taxicab liability ordinance which became effective Wednesday.

Under O'Connell's orders, any of the cab firms' drivers are subject to immediate arrest.

William Brown, president of the Mound City Cab company which operates the Yellow Cabs, said their 175 automobiles will be taken off the streets if any of his drivers are arrested.

It appeared there might be some relief for the cab firms in possible extension of the effective date of the ordinance from May 26 to July 26. The Board of Aldermen is considering such action whch would be effective with the signature of Mayor Aloys P. Kaufmann.

New bond requirements based on a graded scale dependent on the number of vehicles is substantially higher than under the former ordinance.

'What Is To Be Will Be'

JOHANNESBURG, Union of South Africa, May 28.—(AP)—Prime Minister Jan Christiaan Smuts resigned today and Dr. Daniel Francois Malan, victor in Tuesday's elections, was called to form a new South African government.

Malan is an outspoken isolationist and his nationalist party advocates segregation of the natives.

Smuts lost his own seat in parliament in the balloting Tuesday and his party lost its parliamentary majority to the coalition of the nationalists and the Afrikaners.

The 78-year-old statesman had only this to say:

"These things happen. What is to be will be."

Action Soon On Air Academy

SAN ANTONIO, Tex., May 28 —(AP)—Secretary for Air W. Stuart Symington predicted congressional action within a month on the question of creating a "West Point of the Air."

Symington said here yesterday that Randolph Air Base, near here, is "a favorable place" for an academy of the air.

The air force secretary stressed the importance of air power as the "decisive element" of national defense in a luncheon speech.

Symington and a party of Texas congressmen are scheduled to visit Longview today.

Important Events In The World Today

WASHINGTON, May 28.—(AP)—Discontinuance of the "Voice of America," or at least "a breather" in its world broadcasts, was proposed today by Rep. Chenoweth (R-Colo.)

Chenoweth made this suggtion as four investigating groups—one ordered by President Truman—began digging into the rumpus over broadcasts which congressmen say have slandered the United States. The first to begin hearings is a house expenditures subcommittee headed by Chenoweth.

DETROIT, May 28.—(AP)—Chrysler Corp. and the CIO United Auto Workers went back to the bargaining table today somewhat hopeful of ending the strike of 75,000 production workers.

As negotiators entered a third day of tireless talks, a union spokesman said:

"We think there's a good possibility of cleaning it up today."

AMMAN, Trans-Jordan, May 28.—(AP)—It was announced officially here today that the Jewish quarter of the old city of Jerusalem has surrendered to King Abdullah's Arab Legion.

Fewer than 400 Jewish fighters had been holding a last thin line against the Arab onslaught behind the walls of the old city.

The Jewish fighters took cover yesterday in three stone houses beneath the south wall. Arab foot troops were sent in to root them out, after the Legionnaires had captured and occupied the great Hurva Synagogue, long a stronghold to the Jews.

(The Israeli forces say they still hold most of the modern city of Jerusalem, outside the walls.)

LONDON, May 28.—(AP)—Britain today ordered 21 officers serving with the Arab Legion to get out of Palestine. Informed sources said this country has new proposals for a Jewish-Arab settlement in Palestine under "active consideration."

The officers being withdrawn from the Holy Land are those the British had sent to King Abdullah's forces on loan. Brig. John Glubb Pasha, the Legion commander, and other Britons who are under direct contract to trans-Jordan are not affected by the withdrawal. The foreign office emphasized that the 21 need not quit the Legion, but must get out of Palestine.

Truman to Witness Sport Events

WASHINGTON, May 28.—(AP)—President Truman boarded the yacht Williamsburg today for an overnight trip to Annapolis, Md.

Tomorrow, Mr. Truman will witness a series of events, including a baseball game between the midshipmen and West Point cadets.

The President and members of his staff will reach the Severn river off Annapolis early tomorrow morning.

Refuse To Obey Measure

Communist Leader Declares Party Will Not Register If Law Calls for It

WASHINGTON, May 28 — (AP) — William Z. Foster, American Communist party leader, said today the party will not comply with the House-approved Communist control bill if it becomes law.

Foster told the Senate Judiciary committee that the Mundt-Nizon bill would create a "fascist police state" in this country. He said his party could not comply with provisions requiring Communist groups to register with the government.

"If the Mundt-Nixon bill were to pass, the Communist party would not perjure itself by admitting any resemblance to the monstrous caricature of its nature and purposes drawn in this bill," he said.

"It would not dishonor the 15,000 members of our party who fought against fascism in World War II by giving de facto sanction to Hitler's big lie," he said. "That is one reason why we would refuse to register."

Another Reason

Foster's statement was read by John Gates, who accompanied him.

"As a party of patriotic and loyal Americans, we could not and would not become accomplices to the murder of the Bill of Rights," Foster said, adding:

"That is another reason why we would not register. And finally we would not register because we will never expose our members to persecution, ostracism and blacklisting in employment."

Rep. Vito Marcantonio, American Labor party member from New York, also opposed the measure.

Both had a rough time of it. Senator Ferguson (R-Mich) suggested Marcantonio was following the Communist party line in his arguments.

Marcantonio denied it. He contended he was only saying what other liberal American say.

Argues Bill

The bill would force Communist groups to register with the government. It also provides heavy penalties for persons advocating a foreign-control dictatorship in this country.

Foster, a frequent Communist candidate for president, argued the House-approved bill "embodies the philosophy of our Axis enemies of World War II."

"All its provisions are based on the premise that Hitler's big lie has become the gospel truth by which America must light its way," he said.

In trying "to destroy the hard core of the Communist party," he went on, the bill would bring the "establishment of fascism in the United States."

There is "only one Communist political organization" in the United States, he said, "and that is the American Communist party whose roots found soil in the American working class a hundred years ago."

His Idea of Communism

Ferguson repeatedly demanded to know whether Marcantonio felt that Communism is a menace to America.

"No, I certainly do not," Marcantonio replied.

Such a charge, he said, is only a "bogey man." He continued that it is "being raised to divert attention from the failures of the capitalistic system, the trust, the next depress . . ."

Ferguson broke him at that point.

"Just what you are saying is the Communist party line, is it not?" the senator demanded.

"My statement is just what every liberal American says," Marcantonio replied.

He commented that "Communists wear clothes" and he was not going to "advocate nudism" just to avoid party line charges.

"Are the American Communists under the domination of Moscow?" Ferguson persisted.

"The facts are that they are definitely not," Marcantonio answered.

First Sheet of Chaplain Stamps Were Given Today to Truman

WASHINGTON, May 28—(AP)—President Truman received today the first sheet of special three-cent stamps memorializing the heroism of four chaplains who died when the S. S. Dorchester was torpedoed in 1943.

Posmaster General Jesse Donaldson presented the stamps to Mr. Truman at a ceremony attended by 400 persons in the White House rose gardens. The issue went on sale in Washington today and will be available at postoffices across the nation tomorrow.

The four chaplains who lost their lives when the Dorchester went down represented three faiths. They were: George L. Fox and Clark V. Poling, Protestants; John P. Washington, Catholic; and Alexander D. Goode, Jewish.

When the ship was hit in February, 1943, each gave his lifebelt to a man nearby. The chaplains then joined hands and prayed as the vessel went down.

"The greatest sermon that ever was preached is right here on this stamp," Mr. Truman said. He added that he does not thing "in the history of the world there is anything in heroism the equal of this."

Donaldson had said the stamps will pay "small but nevertheless sincere and humble tributes to these servants of the Lord of whom it can well be said 'Greater love has no man than this, that a man lay down his life for his friends.'"

32 Groups 'Subversive'

WASHINGTON, May 28.—(AP)—Thirty-two organizations were tagged "subversive" today by Attorney General Clark.

The 32 are in addition to a list of approximately 90 groups so designated by Clark last November.

The new names were announced by the federal loyalty review board.

The board has the job of checking on loyalty of federal employes. President Truman ordered the check. The President has said that membership in an organization designated as "subversive" should be considered as one basis for investigation of a government worker's loyalty.

Prominent on the original list were the Communist party and numerous alleged Communist front organizations, as well as many defunct groups like the German-American bund.

CHRISTIAN SCIENCE CHURCHES

"ANCIENT AND MODERN NECROMANCY, ALIAS MESMERISM AND HYPNOTISM, DENOUNCED" is the subject of the Lesson-Sermon in all Churches of Christ, Scientist, on Sunday, May 30, 1948.

Golden Text: Revelation 21:7.

Among the citations which comprise the Lesson-Sermon is the following from the Bible: "And I heard a loud voice saying in heaven, Now is come salvation, and strength, and the power of his Christ: for the accuser of our brethren is cast down, which accused them before our God day and night." (Rev. 12:10) The Lesson-Sermon also includes the following passage from the Christian Science textbook, "Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures" by Mary Baker Eddy: "When the final physical and moral effects of Christian Science are fully apprehended, the conflict between truth and error, understanding and belief, Science and material sense, foreshadowed by the prophets and inaugurated by Jesus, will cease, and spiritual harmony reign." (p. 288).

Sunday School Lesson

Keeping One's Hold on God

By William E. Gilroy, D. D.

"I have lost my hold on God," said a woman recently, speaking out of a deep sense of frustration and sadness.

She was the victim of an incurable disease, not fatal, but subject to control and very strict regimen. In addition she was denied the outlet and means of relief that mean much to many sufferers. Her eyes were bad and she could not read to any extent. She was shut out from the worlds of romance, adventure and beauty through which most ill persons find relaxation and escape.

Everything combined to induce a condition of physical and nervous breakdown, in which her religion and faith in God, that should have been her stay and support, had become blacked out. And the consciousness of this seemed to be troubling her more than her physical disabilities. For she had lost the power and will to conquer with the loss of her sense of God.

Manifestly, her case called for something more than the skill of medical doctors. But what could I, as a professed physician of souls, say to help her restore her belief in God, which she needed if she was to go on living with any joy of life?

Certainly I could not speak to her in pleasant and honeyed words, out of my own comparatively good health and untried faith. One who would help his fellowmen in need and distress must ever bear in mind the parable in those four famous lines:

"The toad beneath the harrow knows
Where every sharpened toothpoint goes;
The butterfly upon the road
Preaches contentment to that toad."

One must meet such a situation as if it were his own, not minimizing in any way its depth of tragedy or attempting to make light of what is really dark and serious.

What, then, can one say and do? It seems to me that if help is to come, it must be from those who have been in a similar situation but have not lost their faith. Help must come from those who, even under the deepest sufferings and trials, have given the richest and truest witness concerning the reality of God, and His abiding presence.

Who are these, and how did they conquer? First of all, I think, the Master Himself. And prayer was His greatest resource and power. "In those days," we are told, "He went into the mountain and continued all night in prayer to God." If He needed prayer, how much more do we!

And is there not inspiration and help in the lives of those who, following in the Master's footsteps through prayer and consecration, have similarly conquered in every situation? Read what Paul has said in the closing verses of Romans 8. Here is the greatest help that one can get.

Baptist Chapel Service

The Baptist Chapel, Sixteenth and Hancock avenue, opened Thursday night with services beginning at 8:00 o'clock.

Church News

The Woman's Auxiliary of the Calvary Episcopal church held its regular May meeting at the Parish Hall Tuesday with Mrs. A. J. Harlan, presiding.

Clean, worn silk and rayon materials were turned over to Mrs. W. J. Brill to be sent for bandages to the leper colony in Portuguese, East Africa.

Reports were made by the following committee chairmen: Mrs. Cecil Bohon, United Thank Offering chairman; Mrs. H. R. Bouldin, welfare chairman, Mrs. R. M. Overstreet, friendship chairman.

A report of the convention of the diocese held in Joplin on May 18 by the rector, the Rev. James E. Merrick. He stressed in particular the change in the status of the missionary priests and that continued existence of many of the small churches is made possible by the support of the National Council.

Mrs. A. E. Jackson reported on the Central District meeting of the diocese held May 21 at Warrensburg, which was attended by 15 members of the parish. Those attending from St. Martha's Guild were: Mrs. John M. Hinman, Mrs. Charles Campbell, Mrs. W. J. Brill, Miss Mary Lura McCluney and Miss Lelia Shortridge. Mrs. H. L. Netherton, secretary of the Central District announced the next meeting would be held in Sedalia with the women of the Calvary Episcopal church as hostesses. Some of the plans were outlined for the day. The district included parishes of Fayette Boonville, Excelsior Springs, Independence, Lexington, Lee's Summit, Marshall, Pleasant Hill. Harrisonville and Warrensburg.

A covered dish luncheon preceded the business session. Decorations were arrangements of garden flowers and candles in pink and white.

Hostesses were Mrs. James E Merrick, Mrs. A. E. Jackson and Miss Lelia Shortridge.

In an impressive church service, Sunday afternoon, May 23, Miss Mabel Kipp, eldest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Fred Kipp of near Stover, became the bride of Mr. Raymond Witte, son of Mr. C. A. Witte.

The marriage vows were read by the Rev. J. C. Schedler of the St. Paul's Lutheran church of Stover, using the double ring ceremony. The bride was given away by her father.

She wore a white satin gown with lace trim, her full length veil was held in place with a crown of white beads. She carried a shower bouquet of white gladiolus. The altar was decorated with mixed flowers and ferns.

The wedding march was played by Prof. E. H. Dieckhoff.

Miss DeLeah Kipp, sister of the bride, was maid of honor. She wore a gown of light pink, fashioned like the bride's, and carried a colonial bouquet of pink gladiolus. The bridesmaid, also a sister of the bride wore a gown of aqua with a colonial bouquet of peach color gladiolus. The flower girl was Miss Elsie Ehlers, niece of the bridegroom, wore a formal dress of gold with white ribbons and carried a colored basket of roses. The best man was Emnett Spearing of Kansas City.

Mrs. Kipp, mother of the bride, wore a dress of black crepe with white accessories and a corsage of white and red roses.

As the bridal party left the altar the school children sang the hymn, "Jesus Leads Thou On."

A reception followed the ceremony at the home of the bride's parents, with about one hundred guests being present.

A three tier wedding cake was decorated with pink and white rose buds, topped with a minature bride and groom. After the dinner, a large crowd of charivariers honored the young couple.

The bride is a graduate of the Stover high school, class of 1944. She taught school at Bunker Hill for one year and for the past three years, taught the primary grade at the Lutheran Parochial school. She attended Concordia Teachers College in River Forest, Ill.

The bridegroom attended Stover high school, and has been employed with his father on the farm, at the present time being engaged in the milk trucking business.

They have an apartment at the Etwell Ehlers residence.

Senate Would Admit Refugees

WASHINGTON, May 28—(AP)—The Senate voted 40 to 33 Thursday to let 200,000 war refugees come to this country under displaced persons legislation.

The decision was on an amendment to a measure pending before the Senate. A final vote on the bill itself may come later today.

As originally approved by the judiciary committee, the bill would have permitted no more than 50,000 displaced persons to enter the country during each of the next two years.

Senator Ferguson (R-Mich) and five other Senators sponsored an amendment raising the ceiling to 200,000, not more than one-half of whom might enter during the first year.

Rededication Week Plans

Observance In Early June Taken Up At Meeting

Rededication Week in Sedalia is expected to be a big success in accordance with plans which were discussed and announced at a general meeting held, Thursday afternoon, in the City Council Chamber of the City Hall. The meeting was presided over by James Denny, general chairman.

Michael E. Spatz, area director, from St. Louis, was also in attendance and discussed various phases of the activities and the arrival of the Freedom Train which is sponsored by the American Heritage Foundation, on June 10. Mr. Spatz, stated he was well pleased with the plans and the progress made by the various committees.

Keep Train Rolling

He also announced the Foundation was more than pleased with the work of Abe Silverman and his committee, the finance committee, which is the first city in Missouri to come near reaching its goal to keep the Freedom Train rolling. Mr. Silverman, it was reported was almost over the top in his endeavor to obtain the goal.

Each chairman gave a full report on the work already accomplished by his or her committee, and each committee has almost completed their work for their respective day of celebration, or duties to be handled on the day the Freedom Train visits Sedalia.

Many of the activities will reach over more than the week, some starting as early as June 1, it was reported and carry on through June 10.

Complete details of the week's program will be announced later.

Correction in Story

In the item carried Thursday on the will of the late John S. McGaw, in which he left his estate to his four daughters and his sister, designating the part each was to get, a typographical error caused the insertion of the word "no" for "his," changing the meaning of the article.

It read "he left no estate" when it should have read "he left his estate."

Defeat Smuts In South Africa

Loses In Vote For Re-election To Parliament

JOHANNESBURG, UNION OF SOUTH AFRICA, May 28—(AP)—Prime Minister Jan Christiaan Smuts was defeated for reelection to the South African parliament by a margin of 224 votes in Tuesday's general elections, it was announced Thursday night.

Smuts was defeated for reelection from his constituency of Standerton.

Latest returns from the parliamentary elections indicated Smuts' United Party was in danger of losing its majority in Parliament and that his government might lose power.

Incomplete returns at 11 p. m. showed the Union Party had won 64 seats, Dr. Daniel F. Malan's Nationalists 52, the Labor Party 6 and the Afrikaners 6. There are still 20 seats to be accounted for.

The combined total of Nationalists and Afrikaners' seats puts them within six of the Smuts' party at this stage, and the Nationalist press described the developments as a "revolution."

Malan won the parliamentary race in Piquetberg by a majority of 3,673.

Smuts' minister of native affairs, Maj. Piet Vanderbyl, lost the election in Bredasdorp by 259 votes.

The vote count to date showed that the government party suffered its losses in the Rand and the country districts.

Political circles said Smuts' government appeared to be in danger because the contests still to be announced are in rural areas.

The Daily Washington Merry-go-Round

by Drew Pearson

WASHINGTON, May 28—One thing that set Harold Stassen back in Oregon was the impression that he was trying to be all things to all men. You can get away with this for awhile, but eventually it catches up with you.

For instance, during the senate debate on the Taft-Hartley act, Stassen opposed the bill, much to the embarrassment of Senator Joe Ball of Minnesota who had been appointed to the senate by Stassen. In fact, Stassen's views were effectively quoted by Senator Pepper of Florida in fighting the bill on the senate floor.

But more recently, Stassen has gone into reverse and is telling the electorate what a fine thing the Taft-Hartley act is.

Martha Taft, astute wife of the senator from Ohio, tells friends that during the Ohio primary, a Stassen campaign representative came to Taft's headquarters and naively complained that Taft was unfairly criticizing Stassen as a compromiser. To which the Taft people replied that Stassen was saying some pretty bad things about Taft.

"But," replied the Stassen representative, according to Mrs. Taft "those things about Taft are true."

Real fact is that up until recently Stassen has carved out quite a place for himself as a liberal, though at the same time gathering in campaign contributions from meat packers, grain operators and some of the biggest businessmen of the northwest, to say nothing of his friends among the U. S. Steel Corporation.

Note — When called upon to take a stand on military training, Stassen said in effect that he favored "something a little less than compulsory and a little more than voluntary."

Need of Industrial Statesmanship

Rumors are current both in Wall Street and labor circles that the big boys of industry got together for another "Waldorf Conference" and decided not to give labor another round of wage increases beyond the 9-11 cent boost handed out to the meat packers and General Motors.

If so, the industrial leaders might well put their heads together and exert some statesmanship regarding their labor relations generally, especially their tendency to penalize non-striking unions. At present, the Wall Street policy is to favor the labor leader who waves the big stick and penalize the union that plays ball.

Last June, for instance, Ben Fairless, head of U. S. Steel, together with the Mellon and Hanna coal interests, gave John L. Lewis the biggest wage-pension bonanza in history. It put the coal miners at the top of the wage-ladder, thereby causing jealousy among railroad men—hitherto the aristocrats of labor — and the steel workers, led by Lewis' old rival, Phil Murray.

Later, when it came to the railroad brotherhoods' turn for an increase, they got only 15 cents an hour. Most of them accepted this award. Three unions called a strike. Behind that strike call, in part, was the previous large wage hike handed out by Fairless, the Mellons and the Hannas to John L. Lewis.

Phil Murray was also on the spot. His steel-workers' two-year contract had one year to run, but his union members were restless. They had seen the big hike won by John L. Lewis.

Ben Fairless vs. Ben Fairless

However, the same Ben Fairless who had given Lewis his wage increase plus pension, turned round and gave Murray nothing. Fairless claimed the cost of living had not gone up recently, reminded Murray that the steelworkers' contract had another year to run.

Thus the steel workers did not even get the 15-cent wage boost won by the RR brotherhoods. However, they accepted this with good grace, stuck by their contract, continued working. Also, at Boston, they took a firm stand against Communists and for the Marshall plan.

Actually, it was not Ben Fairless who made the decision to turn down the steel workers. It was Enders Voorhees, a tough New York Dutchman, who acts for J. P. Morgan as chairman of the U. S. Steel finance committee. Fairless has followed a fairly liberal policy with labor. But with the death of Tom Lamont, one of the liberal influences inside the Morgan firm, U. S. Steel's policies have veered reactionary. Having piled up the greatest profits in all history, their much-ballyhooed price decrease was a mere drop in the bucket.

Since Murray was turned down, however, the cost of living has turned up. Last month it shot up 1.6. Therefore, if U. S. Steel should use this as an excuse to offer voluntarily to put across the 9-to-11 cent wage boost agreed on by the big boys, it would have an electrifying effect on all labor.

Not only would it show that the union which doesn't strike gets recognition in the end, but it would have its effect on all labor troubles at a time when the world is watching the U.S.A., and when production under the Marshall plan is more necessary than ever before.

Draft Act Delay

The peacetime draft bill is having increasingly rough sledding in Congress—but not because of peace propaganda sent out by Moscow.

Two gentlemen from Georgia are largely responsible for backstage delays in passing the draft.

In the Senate Armed Services committee, Senator Dick Russell of Georgia, with considerable backing from Dixie Democrats, is fighting hard for his amendment segregating white and colored races in the armed services.

Russell is prepared to filibuster against the draft unless this segregation amendment is adopted. And the Republicans will not invoke cloture for the simple reason that they would prefer to have the ticklish draft question handled after the November elections anyway.

In the House another gentleman from Georgia, Rep. Gene Cox, is out to kill the displaced persons bill. To that end he is making a deal with Rep. Leo Allen, Illinois Republican and chairman of the rules committee, to kill both the draft and the bill admitting displaced persons into the U.S.A.

Cox is a powerful figure inside the rules committee. And since he is as adamant against the displaced persons as Allen is against the draft, they will probably succeed in preventing both from reaching the House floor for debate.

Argentina Gambles On Wheat

Here is the real inside story of the Argentine government's latest sleight-of-hand maneuver with dollar exchange.

The sole aim of the Peron administration is suspending permits for the export of "hard" currencies—in other words, dollars—is to break dollar dominance in the South American hemisphere and impose the Argentine peso as an international medium of exchange. If they can get just one important U. S. exporter to accept pesos for a shipment delivered in Buenos Aires, they will have achieved that aim.

An alternative goal is the speeding up of food purchases in Argentina with Marshall plan dollars. However, Peron does not anticipate this result, due to the expectation of bumper wheat crops in Canada, Australia and the U.S.A. In fact, the big world wheat crop is at the root of the whole Argentine crisis.

As reported in this column last January, the Peron regime gambled heavily during 1947 on the assumption that 1948 wheat yields in other countries would not all set new highs for the third time in a row. The gamble consisted of lavish, virtually reckless, spending of dollar reserves on armaments, ships and some industrial equipment. Peron sold Argentine wheat for $5 a bushel in 1947 and he thought he could do it again in 1948.

But Argentina has now lost her bet. With grain available elsewhere, Marshall Plan administrators have indicated that they will not be buying from Peron's state monopoly, at least not in the near future. This left the glib Gaucho the choice of lowering his wheat prices to competitive levels, or finding some way around the dollar-demand problem. His advisers persuaded him to try the latter first.

Argentina Flirts With Brazil

The opening move was made when Foreign Minister Bramuglia visited Rio De Janeiro en route home from the Bogota conference. Six months ago, Argentina and Brazil agreed on an exchange of products, with both sides paying for all purchases in dollars. The Argentine end of the bargain was 500,000 tons of wheat, more than half of which has already been delivered and collected for.

Brazilian goods covered by the agreement, however, have only just begun to flow south. Bramuglia tried to get officials in Rio to call off the dollar-payment clause, substituting the two countries' own currencies. But Brazil's government would have none of this; it meant running up huge Argentine-peso credits, which could be spent only on more wheat or meat, at Peron's skyhigh prices.

So now the Argentines have taken the next, decisive step, to see if they can put the squeeze on U. S. manufacturers. Their argument, repeatedly put forward to American business representatives by Peron's economic czar, Muguel Miranda, runs like this:

"Since the United States can't afford to lend dollars on a large scale to Latin America, what this area needs is a second universal currency—and the Argentine peso is the logical one. If U. S. exporters would take pesos for their shipments, every other country in South America would begin accepting them, too. Therefore these credits could be used to buy export products anywhere on the continent and before long — this was the real punch line—the peso and the dollar would become equally negotiable for liquid operations as well."

Nobody sent up any audible cheers for this notion. Failing to get voluntary approval, Peron and Miranda are now trying to force the issue. They are prepared to stick by the present restrictions for four months to see what happens in that time.

THE Oxford train drew into Paddington sharp on time. Miss Helen and Miss Alice stepped out onto the platform. Their suitcases were light and they could carry them easily. They'd been deciding on their way to town just what they would do. It was barely 3 o'clock and their train to the country wasn't due till 6:30.

"The Stanton Academy first, we thought, didn't we, dear?" said Miss Alice.

"Yes. I've not seen Madame Girard since Patience started. I'll be glad to have a little chat with her, and to hear how she is getting on."

They took the train to Great Portland Street. Miss Helen remembered the Academy was just around the next turning to the left.

They rang the bell. They gave their names. The message came back that Madame Girard would be delighted to see them.

Miss Alice let her sister do the talking. Helen, she thought, was always so much better at this sort of thing than she was. She always knew just the right sort of questions to ask. And Madame Girard seemed rather a formidable sort of woman. Still, she appeared to be very pleased with the way Patience was progressing.

"I really must tell you, Miss Melville," she was saying, "that I consider her one of my most painstaking pupils. She takes a real interest in her work."

"Patience certainly enjoys her days here, Madame Girard. I don't think she'd miss one of them for anything."

Madame Girard said she was glad to hear it. And certainly her attendance had hitherto been most regular. It was such a pity that she wasn't there today.

Miss Helen and Miss Alice started visibly. They sat forward in their chairs.

"Not here today?" they echoed blankly.

Madame Girard looked from one to the other.

"Didn't you know?"

* * *

"WHY, no. We certainly understood she'd be here," said Miss Helen.

Miss Alice's heart trembled.

"Helen, dear, what can have happened?" she gasped.

Miss Helen pursed her lips.

"This, of course, is Charlotte's influence."

"Charlotte?" queried Madame Girard.

"Her twin sister. Patience has been staying with her this weekend. But she was naturally to have come to you as usual today."

Madame Girard smiled understandingly.

"Well, I shouldn't worry about her," she said soothingly. "I expect she is having—how shall we say it?—a little razzle. You know what young girls are. They like to have some fun. I remember when I was about her age—when I was in Paris—" Madame sighed reminiscently.

Miss Helen rose to her feet. She didn't want to hear what had happened to Madame Girard when she was a young girl in Paris. Paris, from all she'd heard, was a very wicked city.

She said goodby rather abruptly and left the Academy, walking quickly down the steps and out into the street, cold wrath in every line of her figure.

Miss Alice followed nervously behind her.

"We'll go straight to Charlotte's flat," announced Miss Helen. "Luckily I have the address here with me."

* * *

THEY took a taxi. A commissionaire stepped smartly forward and opened the door for them as they drove up outside the main entrance to the block of luxury flats where Charlotte lived. Miss Alice looked about her with wide eyes as they entered the thickly-carpeted foyer and made their way to the lift.

"Flats here must be very expensive, Helen."

"I suppose Charlotte makes a great deal of money. It's very bad for her, I consider. I don't approve of young girls living extravagantly."

Miss Alice sighed. She only hoped that once they reached the flat they'd find Patience there with Charlotte.

But neither girl, it seemed, was in. The trim maid who opened the door said she was sorry but Miss Mond wasn't at home. Nor Miss Patience Mond either.

"I'm their aunt," said Miss Helen, stepping firmly into the hall. "I'd like to wait until they return. Alice, come along in."

The maid looked at them uncertainly.

"I'm not quite sure when they will be back, madam."

"Where have they gone?"

"Er—er—they've gone away for the week-end."

"Where?"

"Well, madam, Miss Carlotta doesn't tell me where she goes when she goes away."

By now Elizabeth was treading warily. She'd guessed immediately who were her unexpected visitors. Miss Carlotta had said they were a couple of old tartars.

She showed them into the drawing room and offered to make them tea.

"Thank you. We'd like some," said Miss Helen coldly.

Elizabeth closed the door, and was just crossing the hall as the front door bell rang.

"Telegram for Mond," said the telegraph boy.

She lay the telegram on the hall table and went into the kitchen to put on the kettle.

Charlotte, entering the flat some short while later, picked it up, and went straight on into the sitting room with it still unopened in her hand.

She stopped dead as her aunts rose from their chairs.

"Heavens above!" she gasped.

HOW SEDALIA'S TELEPHONE SYSTEM HAS GROWN

2,256 more people have telephones than at the end of the war

September, 1945

April, 1948

Today, 50 per cent more telephones are in service in the Sedalia area than were in use two and one-half years ago.

And there is more progress ahead.

Although there are 127 people now waiting for service, they are not the same people who were waiting at war's end. The waiting list has "turned over" many times, with few exceptions.

We're working hard to provide service for those waiting, and we're spending $150,000 gross to extend and improve telephone service in Sedalia.

HOW IT'S BEING DONE

The great increase in telephone service can only be provided by two means:

1 By investing thousands of dollars for switching equipment, cable and wire, instruments, and every other kind of telephone equipment.

2 By "spreading" the service to get telephones sooner for those waiting. That means party line service.

In Sedalia, work is expected to be finished by the middle of the summer on the installation of two more switchboard "positions"—and additional equipment is planned for later on. This equipment will enable us to connect more telephones, and the enlarged telephone system will benefit everyone.

The rural telephone project in the area around Sedalia should be completed soon. More than 700 farmers will have good, dependable service when the project is finished.

THERE'S STILL A SHORTAGE OF CABLE

Despite the progress we've made, hundreds of people would still be waiting if we had not asked new residence customers to take party line service.

The job of enlarging the switchboard has been moving along. But the job of adding to the network of cable and wire moves more slowly — because cable, in particular, is still "short."

As fast as we can get it, we are putting in new cable, and, of course, we reuse each pair of wires whenever it becomes "vacant," to give service to those who are waiting.

But the shortage of cable and other equipment means we can't — for some time to come — furnish straight line telephones for those who want them.

We're working on that right now, but the big job for the time being is to provide service for those waiting.

Would Rather Come After Convention

MacArthur's Return Now Might Not Be Understood

WASHINGTON, May 28—(AP)—Gen. Douglas MacArthur said today he does not want to return to the United States until after the Republican National convention.

The Allied supreme commander in Japan so advised Chairman Bridges (R-NH) of the Senate Appropriations committee in a cablegram. The committee had voted 17-2 to ask him to return from Tokyo and testify on economic matters in the Pacific area.

MacArthur told Bridges "My return at this time, however sincere its purpose, would be misunderstood and condemned by many as politically inspired x x."

MacArthur Added:

"On the other hand, following settlement of the political issues to be resolved next month, I should feel free to place myself fully at your disposal if you still desire clarification of my views on this or any other matter affecting the public interest."

Bridges said "I can see his point of view of this thing." Bridges said he would place MacArthur's reply before the full appropriations committee as soon as possible.

The general has long been mentioned as a possible Republican presidential nominee. The boom for him grew louder after the Senate committee's vote yesterday.

Both of those who voted against asking the occupation commander of Japan to come home after more than 10 years in the Philippines and points west said they did so because of the political atmosphere.

Senator Saltonstall (R-Mass) said he fears the visit is "bound to have political implications." He added:

"I want to keep the ECA as free from politics as I can."

Reasons For Vote

One of the topics MacArthur will be questioned about if he comes home is the foreign aid program being carried out under the Economic Cooperation Administration—better known as ECA.

Senator Reed (R-Kas.), who cast the other "no" vote, commented:

"I think General MacArthur is a great man, has done a great job deserves a great reception when he gets home. But I don't want to get it mixed up with politics."

Just about everybody interested—here and in Tokyo—expected the general to accept the invitation.

He sent his secret reply from Tokyo early today, addressed both to Chairman Bridges of the appropriations committee and to Secretary of the Army Royal, who relayed the committee request.

The fact that MacArthur's headquarters announced that the answer had gone to Washington, but that the release would have to come from Bridges added to the belief that the reply was "yes."

Legal Battle On June 10

WASHINGTON, May 28.—(AP)—Judge T. Alan Goldsborough today postponed until June 10 a legal battle between the government and three railroad unions over whether a ban against a threatened rail strike should be continued.

Goldsborough at the same time extended until June 11 a temporary order preventing the unions from walking out.

This order, signed by Goldsborough on May 10 and already extended once, would have expired tomorrow night.

The three unions and the justice department consented to the new extension of the temporary ban.

Goldsborough gave no reason for postponement of the case. The justice department is seeking an injunction that would prevent a strike indefinitely—or rather, as long as the railroads stay under government seizure.

Case Sent Back For New Trial

JEFFERSON CITY, May 28.—(AP)—The Missouri supreme court threw out yesterday the conviction on an unmarried mother on a charge she killed her new born son and hid the body in the weeds behind her house.

A Washington county circuit court jury convicted Jerene Stringer, 23, Potosi, Mo., shoe factory worker, of manslaughter and set her penalty at five years and a day in the penitentiary.

But the supreme court disagreed and sent the case back for a new trial. It held her trial was not fair because the state introduced testimony by the county coroner that no one reported the Aug. 15, 1946, death.

Since the mother had no legal duty to report the death, the coroner's testimony was prejudicial, the high court decided.

Miss Stringer claimed the baby died after she dropped it accidentally face down on the floor.

Cancel Plans For Broadcast

NEW YORK, May 28.—(AP)—The Mutual broadcasting system said last night it is canceling plans for broadcasts from the national music camp at Interlochen, Mich., to avoid "controversies" with James C. Petrillo.

The network said the projected weekly summer programs were dropped because Dr. Joseph E. Maddy, the camp president, sought to "involve" MBS with the AFL musicians union president.

MBS decided last Saturday to air programs by the high school musicians. Maddy said then he was "glad Mutual gives more importance to law than to the dictates of Petrillo."

The program has not been broad cast since 1942 when Petrillo claimed the young musicians were depriving professional musicians of work.

Maddy, reached at the Interlochen camp last night, said, "I have been informed of the cancellation. Mutual will have to make any further comment on the reason, but I think you can draw your own conclusions."

The Youth orchestra, which draws its school-age musicians from all sections of the country, is on Petrillo's "unfair" list.

Other networks have refused to broadcast the programs.

Big Turnout at 'Old Timers' Night

Nearly fifty members of the Sedalia lodge of Elks, qualifying as "Old Timers" by length of membership, attended the special program, given in their honor Wednesday night. With nearly double that number of "new" members the hall was crowded almost to capacity.

Preceding the opening of lodge a delegation of the older members visited in the homes of Albert Cassing and Charles Graham, who have been ill and were unable to attend last night.

Seven new members were initiated in the "good old fashioned way" by a drill team composed of Past Exalted Rulers.

Following reminiscences by the "Old Timers" of how Elks' activities were carried on in the "old days" refreshments were served in the basement.

Sam Highleyman is the present Exalted Ruler and Lloyd Taylor was chairman of the committee that arranged an interesting program for the evening.

Bill Supported By Bennett

WASHINGTON, May 28.—(AP)—Rep. Bennett (R-Mo) supports the bill to authorize retirement of federal employes engaged in catching persons suspected of offenses against the government.

This bill, already approved by the House postoffice-civil service committee, includes provisions of a bill Bennett had introduced providing earlier pensions for federal prison employes who now retire after 60.

"The federal prison service, and particularly the hospital for mentally afflicted at Springfield, is one of the most hazardous employments in the entire civil service," Bennett said in a statement.

"There are about 2,500 prison guards and other employes whose every day duty requires them to face dangers and tensions which shorten materially their years of usefulness."

During the last ten years, he added, 54 officers at the Springfield institution have been assaulted seriously by prisoners.

The convention call was issued yesterday by the National Wallace for President committee. A spokesman said it went to third parties and Wallace committees in 46 states.

Shrine Hospital Named In Will

In the news article concerning the will of the late Dr. Beverly E. Broaddus, which was filed in probate court, Thursday, it should have read the remainder of the estate would go to the Shrine Hospital for Crippled Children in St. Louis and the School of the Ozarks, instead of mentioning the Broadway Presbyterian church twice.

Dr. Broaddus left to the Broadway Presbyterian church $1,000.

Present For Hubbard School

An attractive framed picture of Hiram R. Revels, United States Senator from Mississippi, the first Negro to sit in the U. S. Senate, together with his autograph and part of a letter he has written, will be presented by Milton J. Hinlein, of this city, to Hubbard School, at the Commencement exercises tonight.

The contents of the original manuscript, framed by the side of the Senator's picture, reads:

"Of the reconstruction of Mississippi on enduring and substantial grounds I can speak with no uncertainty. Every element in the policy of the state seems to argue continuance of prosperity. In our land after years of frightful carnage the sword is sheathed and may it never again be drawn from its scabbard.

"I am respectfully yours,
"Hiram R. Revels.

VA Hospitals To Lose M. D.'s

ST. LOUIS, May 28.—(AP)—An exodus of staff physicians from Veterans' Administration hospitals in Missouri, Arkansas, Kansas and Oklahoma is expected to start about July 1, a VA official said today.

Dr. C. H. Beasley, director of medical service for the VA in the four-state area, said the emergency will develop when 117 commissioned medical officers terminate two-year periods of duty to which they agreed when they were trained at government expense during the war.

Nearly all of these army and navy medical officers are expected to leave. And as a result, the agency's present full-time staff of physicians may be depleted by about 40 per cent, Beasley said.

Dr. Beasley added that the Veterans' Administration hospitals that will be hardest hit are those at Springfield, Mo., Wadsworth and Wichita, Kas., Muskogee, Ok., and Fayetteville and North Little Rock, Ark.

He appealed to any doctors interested in full time or even part-time affiliation with the Veterans' Administration to get in touch with VA officials.

A's Return To Shibe Park In 1st Place

Lead Indians by A Full Game and 9 Pct. Points

By Jack Hand
(Associated Press Sports Writer)

Connie Mack's Athletics are safely home in first place, fooling the wiseacres who said Philadelphia would fade in the west. Winners eight times in 13 starts since leaving friendly Shibe Park, the Mackmen now must be considered bona fide pennant contenders.

It looked bad when their 10-game streak was snapped in New York the first day out of Philadelphia, but they rallied and swept a doubleheader the next day. Cleveland belted them two in a row and Detroit's Freddie Hutchinson handed them a third straight loss before injured Elmer Valo rejoined his mates.

The A's split the next two with the Tigers, swept a pair at St. Louis, two more in Chicago and then smeared Washington last night, 7-3.

Cleveland's ally in the percentage point columns couldn't stop the A's from regaining the lead last night. They moved a full game in front of the idle Indians and, more important, nine percentage points to the good.

With the New York Yankees coming in tonight for the feature game of an all-night game schedule in the majors, a new Shibe Park attendance record may be set.

Umpire Gets Showered

Umpire Red Jones found himself in the midst of a shower of bottles, beer cans and other debris at Washington in the ninth inning. He was in the path of a ball thrown to the plate by Mickey Vernon of Washington. Vernon scooped up Pete Suder's grounder and tried to catch Sam Chapman at the plate but the ball struck Jones' chest protector as he stood in the base line.

This most explosive outburst by Washington fans in recent years didn't end until Jones told the public address announcer to say the game would be forfeited unless the shower ceased. The game was finished and police escorted Jones from the field.

Stan Musial polished off his sensational eastern swing with two hits, including his 10th homer, in the St. Louis Cards' 9-6 victory over the New York Giants.

Schoendienst's Single Big Blow

Red Schoendienst's base-loaded single was the big blow for the Cards as they scored four runs in the ninth to top the stubborn Giants.

The rally came in time, for the Giants, bounding back as they did all afternoon, scored another run in their part of the ninth. They had two runners on base when Ted Wilks relieved Al Brazle and disposed of the last Giant batter.

In the three hour and 22 minutes, the Giants used six pitchers, the Redbirds four. Jim Hearn was credited with the victory. Musial's homer ties him for the National League with Ralph Kiner of the Pirates and Hank Sauer of the Reds.

The Brooklyn Dodgers ended a one-day stay in the National cellar, climbing to sixth place by shading Chicago, 4-2.

Simmons Beats Pirates

Curt Simmons, the Phillies' $60,000 bonus lefthander, finally hit his stride with a fancy three-hit win over Pittsburgh, 2-1.

Cincinnati and Boston were idle in the National as were Boston, New York, Cleveland, Chicago, Detroit and St. Louis in the American.

Haefner Holds a One-Stroke Lead

FORT WORTH, Tex., May 27—(AP)—The 15,000 Colonial National Invitation golf tournament moved into its second round today with the select field chasing ponderous Clayton Heafner, that putting man from Charlotte, N. C.

Heafner held a one-stroke lead as the result of his three-under-par 67 in yesterday's opening 18 holes. It came through some of the best putting ever seen on Colonial Country club's sweeping 6,635-yard course as Heafner snatched the lead at the tag end of the round.

The big blonde man from the south was one of six who bettered par for the day—the best showing in the opening round in the three-year history of the Colonial tournament. The course had been trimmed down a couple of hundred yards but heavy rain that made the fairways and greens soggy cut down the carry on drives and did aggravating things with the chip shots.

A stroke behind Heafner were Chandler Harper of Portsmouth, Va.; Herman Keiser of Akron, O.; Toney Penna of Cincinnati and George Schoux of Mamaroneck, N. Y. The latter missed a hole-in-one on No. 16 by a fraction of the cup. Heafner's luck was better. At No. 4 he had a 3½ foot putt for a birdie and the ball hung on the edge for what he estimated to be at least two minutes before falling in.

St. Paul Starts Dropping In A. A.

St. Paul, which for weeks had surprised fans and experts alike by staying at the top of the American Association with its new team, was in third place today and in a five-game losing streak.

Indianapolis put the skids on the Saints last night, beating them in both games of a double header, 9 to 1 and 5 to 4.

A Shrine night crowd of 15,183 at Columbus saw the Red Birds tie Minneapolis 9-9 in the seventh inning and then go on to win the tenth.

Milwaukee also collected 16 hits in its 10 to 5 win over Louisville, breaking the Colonels' three-game winning streak.

Kansas City moved into a virtual tie with seventh place Toledo as the Blues kept up their winning way by defeating the Mud Hens 7 to 5.

Today's schedule:
St. Paul at Indianapolis.
Milwaukee at Louisville.
Kansas City at Toledo.
Minneapolis at Columbus.

Sports Writers Pick Graziano

NEW YORK, May 28— (AP) — Sports writers seem to be generally agreed on one point about the third Rocky Graziano-Tony Zale middleweight championship fight June 9 — It'll be another knock-down, drag-out scrap. And Graziano is a heavy favorite.

Of the 262 sports editors participating in an Associated Press poll, a total of 211 figure it won't go the full 15-round route.

The two previous meetings resulted in bitter, toe-to-toe battles and six round knockouts. Zale won in New York in 1946, successfully defending his title. He lost the championship to Graziano last year in Chicago.

A large majority of the editors expressing an opinion favor Graziano to keep his title. The Brooklyn Banger received 221 of the 262 votes. Zale got 41.

By Hugh Fullerton, Jr.

NEW YORK, May 28.—(AP)—If the National Collegiate A. A. decides to rule out "bowl" games for college football—and as smart a guy as Zipp Newman predicts that's what will happen within five years—the Sugar bowl will sponsor a pro game in New Orleans on New Year's day . . . But it's this department's guess that within five years the "sanity code" will be buried along with Bulletin 23 of the Carnegie Foundation . . . Bill Jurges, Chicago Cubs coach, is talking to Major league ball clubs about a plan for realizing profits from the fans' desire for autographed balls—with the players sharing in said profits . . .

Just Clubby

When Big Cal Hubbard reached Detroit to umpire at Briggs Stadium the other day, one of the first things he did was visit his former Geneva college coach, Bo McMillin . . . That revived the old story of the time that Bo, a comparatively little guy, accused Cal of loafing on the football field and then roughing up some of the players . . . McMillin merely warned him: "Cal, if you don't behave, I'll grab a hickory stick and beat you within an inch of your life." . . . Cal behaved.

One-Minute Sports Page

The Duke U. golf team, which recently won the Southern Conference title for the tenth time in eleven years, may find the going rough in the National collegiate tournament at Stanford because two of its better players are Freshmen and thus ineligible . . . The Blue Devils have Art Wall, Jr., who has made 26 holes-in-one, but he'll have to contend with Oklahoma's Charley Coe, who fired a record 64 at Lincoln, Neb., in the big seven tourney . . . Incidentally, some scribes in the Midlands say they'll continue calling it the "Big Six" until Colorado, the seventh member, wins something . . .

Dots All, Brothers

Howie Odell's first U. of Washington football team drew a crowd of 10,000 for its final spring scrimmage . . . Bill and Bunny Cook, the old Ranger hockey duo, fell one game short of sweeping the minor league hockey playoff titles this spring.

Chiefs Play The Capitals Tonight

Tonight at 8 o'clock, at Liberty ball park, the Sedalia Chiefs will meet another foe in the Ban Johnson League, the Jefferson City Capitals in a game that will prove to be a thriller from start to finish.

These boys who have been rivals in high school and Junior Legion ball are now rivals in the Ban Johnson League and Sedalia and Jefferson City contests over the years have proved to be evenly matched and hotly contested.

Manager Walter Jesse will start Ducky Eschbacher who hurled the opening game here last week against Mexico with Don McMillan, a Missouri university star available for relief duty. The addition of McMillan to the team will give it some additional hitting power as he can play the outfield as well as pitch.

The lineups for the game tonight have not been announced.

Babe Ruth to Be In Baseball Clinic

ST. LOUIS, May 28—(AP)—Babe Ruth is returning to Sportsman's Park, where twice in World Series games in 1926 and 1928 he hit three home runs.

Ruth will appear June 19 in connection with a free baseball clinis for boys. He will attend an afternoon game between the Browns and the Yankees.

Swiss Plan To Fight Hail

BERN, Switzerland — (AP) —The Swiss Agricultural Department will undertake experiments in blasting hailstorms out of the sky. The experiments, the department announces, are planned where tobacco plantations have been subjected to seasonal damage by hailstorms.

In the fruit-growing areas of western Switzerland, for some years rockets and shells have been shot into hail clouds in an effort to break them up before they loosed their load in vineyards and orchards. The ground defenses have been mostly by small communities, and local authorities have not been able to agree to the efficacy of thei methods. For one thing, the vineyards and orchards to be protected were scattered, sometimes separated by mountins, and it was impossible accurately to measure the results. The Magadino plain, frequently visited by hailstorms, and the tobacco fields there, highly susceptible to hail damage, are expected to be a better proving ground.

Discuss Embargo On Arms

Fierce Battle Is Raging On Tel Aviv Road To Jerusalem

WASHINGTON, May 27—(AP)—President Truman indicated today that the future of the American embargo on arms shipments to the Middle East will be determined on the basis of United Nations policy toward Palestine.

At a news conference, the President said that the whole issue of the arms embargo is under consideration by the U. N. and he had no comment on it.

Two weeks ago the White House had said that the status of the arms embargo—lifting of which has been demanded by the Jews as an aid to their forces in Palestine—was under consideration.

The significance of his comment today appeared to be that the American government would not take any action except one which was in line with United Nations policy as laid down by the Security Council.

And the subject of arms shipments came up in the Security Council only a few hours later. The British, in calling for a four weeks' armistice and peaceful settlement of the war, said they would join a world-wide arms embargo affecting Jews and Arabs alike if the Council found such a step necessary.

They also demanded that both sides stop introducing fighting men and materials into Palestine during the proposed truce.

State department officials said President Truman issued his arms embargo under legal authority he has to control arms shipments. Thus he could lift it without reference to what the U. N. does, but he apparently has decided to take U. N. policy into consideration.

Hot Battle Waged

By Max Boyd

CAIRO, May 27—(AP)—The most hotly contested battle of the Palestine war was reported being fought tonight along the Jerusalem road to Tel Aviv.

Inside the old city of Jerusalem, dispatches from the city said, Arab Legion infantry at last fought its way inside the great domed Hurva synagogue, defended for 11 days by a band of desperate Irgunists, and raised the Arab flag. The dispatches said the Jews were scattered into a 200-square yard area of rubble as the Legion moved in, under cover of armored cars shortly after noon.

The victorious Arab entry into the battered synagogue punctuated a visit by King Abdullah of Trans-Jordan who was hailed by his followers as the "king of Jerusalem."

The voice of Jerusalem, a Haganah station in the besieged city, said thousands of soldiers on both sides had been thrown into combat in a wide area around Latrun, former British internment camp for Jews, and Bab El Wad, a gorge 15 miles west of Jerusalem.

Jewish censorship blacked out all news of the combat from Tel Aviv, but Jerusalem dispatches 24 hours old said the center of the battle for Jerusalem was shifting to the strategic highway. Arab Legion forces from Jerusalem were being rushed to the area, it was reported.

Earlier advices indicated the battle on the Jerusalem-Tel Aviv road was set off by determined Jewish efforts to open the highway for convoys bringing food and supplies to Jerusalem's 100,000 Jews and its defenders.

Arab communiques last night declared 3,000 Jews were thrown into a single battle over a convoy. They said the convoy was wiped out and 800 Jews killed.

A Tel Aviv communique said Jewish planes bombed Biddu, north of the road where Arab artillery was active.

Demand Armistice

LAKE SUCCESS, May 27—(AP)—Britain urged tonight that the United Nations try finally to pacify Palestine during a proposed four-weeks armistice. Russia demanded instead an immediate and forceful U. N. crack-down to end the war.

These two proposals burst upon a tense Security Council just after the United States acknowledged failure and asked other members to try to solve the problem.

The British declared that if the plan for peaceful mediation did join a world-wide embargo of not work this time they would arms if the Security Council decided on that course.

In Washington, President Truman briefly declared the question of lifting the embargo on arms shipments to Palestine is under consideration by the United Nations. He did not explain what he meant but it was said in Washington that the statement indicated Mr. Truman does not plan to change now the U. S. embargo on arms shipments to Middle Eastern countries.

A spokesman for the new Jewish state of Israel promptly denounced the British proposal, saying it was a maneuver to help the Arabs.

He said the "alliance between the British government and the Arab aggressors is complete now both in the political and the military sphere."

Rededication Week Plans

Observance In Early June Taken Up At Meeting

Rededication Week in Sedalia is expected to be a big success in accordance with plans which were discussed and announced at a general meeting held, Thursday afternoon, in the City Council Chamber of the City Hall. The meeting which lasted for more than two and a half hours was presided over by James Denny, general chairman.

Michael E. Spatz, area director, from St. Louis, was also in attendance and discussed various phases of the activities and the arrival of the Freedom Train which is sponsored by the American Heritage Foundation, on June 10. Mr. Spatz, stated he was well pleased with the plans and the progress made by the various committees.

Keep Train Rolling

He also announced the Foundation was more than pleased with the work of Abe Silverman and his committee, the finance committee, which is the first city in Missouri to come near reaching its goal to keep the Freedom Train rolling. Mr. Silverman, it was reported was almost over the top in his endeavor to obtain the goal.

Each chairman gave a full report on the work already accomplished by his or her committee, and each committee has almost completed their work for their respective day of celebration, or duties to be handled on the day the Freedom Train visits Sedalia.

Many of the activities will reach over more than the week, some starting as early as June 1, it was reported and carry on through June 10.

Complete details of the week's program will be announced later.

Meet Again On Strike Issue Today At 9:00

Sessions In The Chrysler Dispute Over Nine Hours

DETROIT May 27—(AP)—Chrysler corporation and the CIO United Auto Workers ended another night session without reaching any agreement tonight on their efforts to settle the 16-day strike at Chrysler plants.

The conferees adjourned after meeting for nearly nine hours today and agreed to meet again at 9 a. m. (EST) tomorrow.

Neither side issued any comment as the weary negotiators filed out of the conference room.

Observers expressed belief that the conferees had hit some sort of snag in their efforts to settle the strike of 75,000 auto workers.

They pointed out that the principals on leaving previous sessions were smiling and chatting, but that tonight practically all had a grim look as they ended the long session.

The recent sessions of Chrysler and the UAW representatives apparently had been aimed at getting the strikers back on their jobs Tuesday following the long Memorial day weekend.

The union and company representatives met for four hours this afternoon before recessing for supper. During the recess, the UAW's international executive board convened in special session at a Detroit hotel to hear late developments in the strike that has idled 75,000 workers.

Over 75,000 Idle

The recess in Chrysler negotiations coincided with a special UAW executive board meeting, which had been called earlier, and which pointed up belief that an agreement on Chrysler wages was near. More than 75,000 production workers are idle in the walkout.

According to union sources, the UAW executive board meeting was planned as early as a week ago, when it appeared negotiations with General Motors might reach a climax tonight on expiration of the union's contract there. The G. M. dispute was settled last Tuesday when negotiators approved a two-year wage pattern based on the cost of living.

General Motors and the United Electrical Workers (CIO) agreed today on a similar pattern affecting about 40,000 electrical workers in the industry.

Defeat Smuts In South Africa

Loses In Vote For Re-election To Parliament

JOHANNESBURG, UNION OF SOUTH AFRICA, May 27—(AP)—Prime Minister Jan Christiaan Smuts was defeated for reelection to the South African parliament by a margin of 224 votes in Tuesday's general elections, it was announced tonight.

Smuts was defeated for reelection from his constituency of Standerton.

Latest returns from the parliamentary elections indicated Smuts' United Party was in danger of losing its majority in Parliament and that his government might lose power.

Incomplete returns at 11 p. m. showed the Union Party had won 64 seats, Dr. Daniel F. Malan's Nationalists 52, the Labor Party 6 and the Afrikaners 6. There are still 20 seats to be accounted for.

The combined total of Nationalists and Afrikaners' seats puts them within six of the Smuts' party at this stage, and the Nationalist press described the developments as a "revolution."

Malan won the parliamentary race in Piquetberg by a majority of 3,673.

Smuts' minister of native affairs, Maj. Piet Vanderbyl, lost the election in Bredasdorp by 259 votes.

The vote count to date showed that the government party suffered its losses in the Rand and the country districts.

Political circles said Smuts' government appeared to be in danger because the contests still to be announced are in rural areas.

U.S. is Making Second Protest

WASHINGTON, May 27—(AP)—The United States is making a second protest to the government of Lebanon over the seizure of 41 American citizens from the SS Marine Carp last week.

The Labonese, lined up with the Arab forces fighting in Palestine, contended that the 41 were part of a larger group of Jewish young men enroute to fight for the new state of Israel.

Today Press Officer Michael McDermott told reporters that American Minister Lowell Pinkerton at Beirut had been instructed to lodge "a second protest on the matter, but I cannot go into details immediately since I do not know whether the protest has been delivered yet."

The instructions went out last night. McDermott said there would be more information when Pinkerton had talked to the Lebonese authorities.

Senate Would Admit Refugees

WASHINGTON, May 27—(AP)—The Senate voted 40 to 33 today to let 200,000 war refugees come to this country under displaced persons legislation.

The decision was on an amendment to a measure pending before the Senate. A final vote on the bill itself may come later today. As originally approved by the judiciary committee, the bill would have permitted no more than 50,000 displaced persons to enter the country during each of the next two years.

Senator Ferguson (R-Mich) and five other Senators sponsored an amendment raising the ceiling to 200,000, not more than one-half of whom might enter during the first year.

Charge Sale of Whisky To Federal Prisoners

ST. JOSEPH, Mo., May 27.—(AP)—The Federal Bureau of Investigation has charged Cornelius Sanders, 30, of St. Joseph, with the sale of contraband whisky and Benzerdine inhalers to prisoners at the federal penitentiary, Leavenworth, Kas.

The FBI alleges Sanders furnished the contraband to trusty prisoners when they delivered merchandise here.

At his arraignment yesterday Sanders was freed under $1,000 bond pending a preliminary hearing June 1. The FBI said he denied knowing the men involved were federal prisoners.

Calhoun Man, 102, One of Few GAR Members Still Living

WASHINGTON, May 27—(AP)—The fast-thinning ranks of the Grand Army of the Republic will number less than three score on Memorial Day.

Rolls of the Veterans Administration disclose that as of May 26 there were only 52 known survivors among those who wore the blue in the war between the states.

The youngest is 97-year-old James Crugom of Chicago; the oldest is Albert Hard, 31 Portsmouth Terrace, Rochester, N. Y., who will be 106 next July 15.

No records are kept by the government of Confederate veterans, but their number is estimated to be slightly under that of the men who served in the Union army.

Most of the G.A.R. veterans receive about $120 monthly from the government, a few get less.

The federal government gives no pensions to those who wore gray, but many southern states individually provide for them.

The United Confederate Veterans, Richmond, Va., also keeps their interests in mind.

46 Died Last Year

During the past year death claimed 45 of the Union army veterans. Their number a year ago was 97; in May of 1946 it was 155 and in May 1945 the total was 240.

Most of the survivors of the war that ended 83 years ago last month have passed the century mark in age. They now live in 24 states, several in the south. Missouri and California, two states which had men fighting on both sides, jointly boast the largest list of surviving men who wore the blue—six in each.

Missouri—On the pension rolls are: John F. Branaman, 99, 1003 North Jefferson avenue, Springfield; David Harper, 102, Montgomery City; John Hutchinson, 102, Ava; William Kowazek, 100, Hawk Point; William M. Osborn, 105, 2201 Penn avenue, Joplin; Henry C. Umphres, 102, Calhoun.

Gets No Word From Stalin

WASHINGTON, May 27—(AP)—President Truman said today he has had no communication from Premier Stalin since the "big three" conference at Potsdam in 1945.

He made this observation when a reporter asked him at a news conference if he had had any recent direct communication from the Russian leader.

There have been rumors from time to time for months of overtures from Russia for a Stalin-Truman meeting.

File Charges Against Three At University

Former Sedalian Arrested on Serious Charge

COLUMBIA, Mo., May 27—(AP)—A veteran University of Missouri journalism professor was charged with sodomy today as Prosecutor Howard B. Lang, Jr., pieced together what he described as a near fantastic story of "mad homosexual parties" in this college town.

The prosecuting attorney said he had issued a warrant for the arrest of E. K. Johnston, for 24 years a member of the faculty of the university's School of Journalism, after a long investigation into abnormal sex orgies here and other central Missouri cities.

Two other men were held in the Boone county jail on similar charges. They are Willie Coots, a gift shop employe here, and Warren W. Heathman, 35, Rolla, Mo., an itinerant instructor for the Veteran Administration's farm training program.

E. K. Johnston is a former Sedalian, better known as "Emery" during his Sedalia high school days here when he was a member of the Class of '17.

He lived at 710 West Fourth street with his grandfather, E. E. Johnston, then Sedalia postmaster who was also in the clothing business with Emery's father, John A. Johnston at 207 South Ohio street.

Sign Statements

Lang said both had signed statements, implicating Johnston as a principal in what he called a homosexual's "ring" at Johnston's apartment which Coots had shared for the last 15 or 16 years.

At least a score of University of Missouri students and other residents here, Lang said, also are implicated in the ring. No charges have been filed against any one except Coots, Heathman and Johnston but several are being held in jail for investigation or as material witnesses.

Heathman, Lang reported, told a near-fantastic story of "mad parties" at Johnston's apartment and at a cabin near Salem, Mo., in which as many as 30 members of the "ring" gathered to boast of conquest and to indulge in homosexual practices.

Heathman's statement was corroborated by those of others

Stassen Looks for Second Choice Votes

NEW YORK, May 27.—(AP)—Harold E. Stassen said today that he expected approximately 250 second choice ballots at the Philadelphia convention to add to his predicted 340 first-choice votes for the Republican presidential nomination.

"Obviously second-choice support is nominating support," Stassen said at a news conference here.

The former Minnesota governor said the national convention would be "wide-open" and that no one would have sufficient support to obtain the nomination on the first ballot. Nomination will re-

MacArthur May Return

Decision Remains Up To Coming Developments

WASHINGTON, May 27—(AP)—General Douglas MacArthur probably will return home early in June—his first trip to the United States since before Pearl Harbor.

The decision is still up to him but quick-breaking developments today seemed to many to assure the return of the 67-year old supreme commander of the allied forces in the Far East.

First, the Senate appropriations committee voted 17 to 2 to ask him to testify at hearing on the appropriations for the Far East.

Later, President Truman in a news conference said he will be very happy to have General MacArthur return home.

Then followed a flood of cables from congressmen and friends.

The clincher was a cable from Army Secretary Royall, mentioning dates—June 2 or June 3—and telling of arrangements to meet him in San Francisco and of accommodations in Washington.

Royall said Senator Gurney (R-SD) of the appropriations committee suggested that he bring his family.

Action Not Mandatory

However, the decision still technically remains MacArthur's. The Senate committee's vote did not make his return mandatory.

There was immediate speculation as to what effect his return, if he does come back, will have on the Republican presidential nomination race, which culminates in the Philadelphia convention starting June 21. MacArthur has said he would accept the nomination if it is offered to him.

Senator Wherry (R-Neb) said the Senate committee action today did not involve politics.

No Immediate Verification

TOKYO, Friday, May 28—(AP)—The possibility appeared slim today that there would be any immediate announcement from General MacArthur on his possible return to the United States.

Sources close to the general said they doubted if he would comment before receiving the formal request from the Senate appropriations committee, which voted to ask him to return and testify.

Newsmen were waiting for the general when he reached his office at 11:25 a. m. someone asked him:

"Have you any statement for us this morning?"

MacArthur paused at the door to his office, turned and inquired: "What was that?"

The question was repeated and he said:

"I could not tell you yet."

He then went into his office.

His aides had told newsmen earlier that they had not had a chance to discuss the invitation with the general.

MacArthur, who has not been in the United States since before Pearl Harbor, has been invited on previous occasions to return and appear before congress. He declined.

The most recent was a request of the House foreign affairs committee for his testimony on aid to China. He declined last March 2.

The Senate committee invitation, however, is somewhat different. He has been invited to give his views on the Oriental situation as a whole.

Thousands Are Flood Victims in Washington

By the Associated Press

Thousands of persons fled their homes in the Richland-Pasco-Kennewick area of Eastern Washington today as flood waters lapped over dikes, flooded several trailer camps and threatened numerous others.

Estimates of the number of evacuated persons varied widely. Benton County Sheriff Harry Cochrane reported earlier that 20,000 persons would be forced to move. Later reports by the sheriff's office, Kennewick city police and State Patrol placed the figure closer to 5,000.

Claims He Told What To Write

Borgia Asserts Scripts Bringing Senate Wrath Not His Responsibility

WASHINGTON, May 27—(AP)—President Truman and boiling mad lawmakers launched multiple investigations today into Voice of America broadcasts branded on the floor of Congress as subversive "smears" on American states and customs.

Mr. Truman told a news conference he is having the situation looked into to find out who was at fault. The President noted that the state department, which runs the Voice of America, did not make the broadcast itself.

For the state department, George V. Allen, who recently became a: assistant secretary in charge of the "Voice," said steps were being taken to see that no such broadcasts are aired again.

NEW YORK, May 27—(AP)—Rene Borgia, Venezuelan-born writer fired by NBC for writing "Voice of America" script which aroused the wrath of the U. S. Senate, today disclaimed responsibility for them.

Borgia, 51, said he was given research material and told what to write by his supervisor, Alberto Gandero, who also is no longer on NBC's payroll.

"I was told to write them that way," Borgia said in a telephone interview. "I didn't even sign them because I didn't believe that was in them.

A double-barreled investigation of the broadcasts was ordered in Washington by irate congressmen. They charged the scripts libeled the United States before the world by saying such things as "New England was founded by hypocrisy and Texas by sin."

Lost Job Over Furor

Mrs. Albert Gandero, also reached by telephone, said her husband had lost his job because of the furor over the broadcasts but insisted it was not his fault. He now is in Cuba doing radio work, she said.

NBC said Gandero was relieved of his post as head of the Spanish language section in the shortwave department, and then resigned.

NBC officials here declined comment on the controversy. William F. Brooks, NBC vice president in charge of news and international relations, is in Washington.

However, a spokesman for the radio chain did disagree with the international broadcasting division of the state department over Borgia's status in the five-year period from 1942 to September, 1947.

The state department said Borgia was an NBC employe working on foreign language projects in the period. NBC asserted he was on the state department payroll assigned to NBC, but that he became an NBC employe last September.

Senator Ferguson (R-Mich), the Republicans' top investigator, will head the inquisitory body by the Senate.

Rep. Chenoweth (R-Colo) will direct one for the House.

Indignation, anger and amazement were mixed in the congressional reaction to disclosure that the broadcasts have told the world such things as — "New England was founded by hypocrisy and Texas by sin."

The importance attached to the matter was emphasized by the fact that Senator Vandenberg (R-Mich), the Senate's presiding officer and chairman of its Foreign Relations committee, announced plans for the Senate investigation.

Amazed By Reports

Vandenberg said he is "amazed" by reports of the broadcasts. He conferred with Chairman Aiken of the expenditures committee. Aiken named Ferguson to dig into the record.

Wm. Fern Brooks, NBC vice president, who makes an explanation for the company, is a former Sedalian. The family when in Sedalia, lived at 406 West Sixteenth street.

Later, the Senate Commerce committee voted to look into the matter, particularly as it affects private companies. The committee has authority over radio and communications legislation.

That brought on Senate debate over who should investigate. Senator Connally (D-Tex) told the Senate "It is a matter of high international importance." He said the Foreign Relations committee should handle it. Democratic Leader Barkley (Ky) took the same stand.

White replied that he feels "very strongly" the Commerce committee should do it because "the most difficult question to

Many Visitors Here To Attend Flower Show

Exhibits Showed Careful Planning, Original Ideas

The Flower Show sponsored by the Sedalia Garden Club held Saturday afternoon and evening at Convention Hall, Liberty Park, was attended by many people not only from Sedalia, but a number coming from Marshall, Boonville and many other places.

In addition to the specimens on exhibit and flower arrangements which were judged during the morning by J. E. Smith, professor of floriculture at the University of Missouri Columbia and two students, of floriculture at the university, Eugene M. Kent, Boonville and J. B. McCully, Jr., Columbia, there were many clever and attractive garden scenes and bride's tables.

The center of the large auditorium was a garden wedding scene.

Breakfast Looked Good

The most interesting breakfast table setting, arranged by circle number seven, had a realistic touch. Not only were the dishes and silver for the meal there, but also the food, real food. The toaster had two pieces of toast just waiting to be removed, there was a glass of tomatoe juice on each plate and a half grapefruit at each place with a cherry on top. The tables were all inviting with pretty dishes and flowers in a number of different ideas.

The booths of the different circles represented a variety of ideas. Circle number eight, the newest in the Garden Club featured a well with an old oaken bucket and copper cup. One garden enclosed with a white picket fence looked like the woman gardner might have left the scene for a few minutes, probably called to the telephone. There was the garden chair, a basket of flowers and a table with not only garden magazines but also her sunbonnet as she might have carelessly put it down. There were also shrubbery and flowers, shadow boxes and Mexican arrangements in the booths.

Awards

Awards in the tables were: First, Circle number seven; second, Circle number one; third, Circle number two and fourth Circle number five.

Awards in the booths were first, circle number five; second, Circle number seven and third, Circle number two.

Other spots of interest were the bird exhibit, with stuffed birds, birdhouses and bird feeders as well as pictures and a real live bird; the tea garden where refreshments were served and the miniature reproduction of the Blue Star Highway and the roadside parks which was the inspiration of Spencer Miller, Jr., when he made a cross country trip and saw all the blue star banners along the way.

Music was furnished during the afternoon by orchestras from Washington and Broadway schools.

Style Show

An event of the evening was the style show of summer fashions.

Junior Exhibit

The Junior exhibit in the north room of the building was a group of rose arbors, along the top of which were bird houses. Tables for children's parties were complete even to a birthday cake on one, formed a circle. In the center of the circle was a May pole with streamers going to each table. There were also flower arrangements, posters, pictures and scrapbooks.

The corridor was filled with everything needed for a garden which had been loaned by the merchants.

Antique Hobby Show

The Antique and Hobby show in the south room drew a large number of interested persons.

Mrs. Frank S. Leach was general chairman of the flower show and Mrs. J. C. Saunder is president of the Sedalia Garden Club Council.

Hudson Stays With the Times

The Sedalia Times-Record was sold at public auction, Saturday morning, and was purchased by Douglas Hudson, Ft. Scott, Kansas, brother of Stanton Hudson one of the owners of the company. He paid $9,600 subject to liens totalling $14,827.34. The Knob Noster Gem also sold under court order was purchased by Douglas Hudson for $752.50 at an auction sale held in Knob Noster, Saturday afternoon.

The sale was a result of a dissolution suit brought by Dan M. Carr, one of the partners in the company. The suit was sent to Johnson county under a change of venue, at which place Judge James R. Garrison ordered the court sale, and named William F. Brown, Sedalia attorney as trustee. He conducted the sale.

Douglas Hudson stated he purchased the paper in his name for purposes of convenience but that the real ownership will continue under his brother, Stanton. Mr. Hudson said the weekly papers and job printing plant would continue on as in the past.

Molasses Covered Iowa Youth Freed at Warsaw Saturday

"A hungry and exhausted senior of Iowa State college, Ames, Ia., clad only in trousers and with a blanket thrown over his shoulders, appeared early Saturday at the Benton county sheriff's office here, describing himself as the victim of a fraternity stunt," states the Saturday night Kansas City Star, in a dispatch from Warsaw, Mo. The article from Warsaw as taken from the Star, continues.

"James C. Greer, 21 years old, Detroit, soon to be graduated from the college, told Harrison Eaton, sheriff, that he had been taken on a 300-mile ride from Ames, and left in the woods about eighteen miles southeast of Warsaw with molasses and a granular cereal rubbed into his body and hair.

Victim of Annual Stunt

"The ride and punishment were part of an annual stunt in which fraternity pledges "kidnap" seniors and usually release them a few miles outside Ames, Greer said. This year they apparently decided to improve on past experience, he added. Greer is a member of Phi Gamma Delta fraternity.

"'I returned to the fraternity house about 5 o'clock yesterday afternoon,' Greer said today. 'We had just finished a mixed softball game against Delta Delta sorority, and I was planning to attend a senior 'good-by' banquet last night.

"'As I was entering the house about ten of the pledges seized me and tied me up. They threw a pillow case over my head as a blindfold. Then they loaded me into a Ford convertible, and four pledges went along for the ride.

The only stop on the 300-mile escape that Greer could recall was the car halted for several minutes in Des Moines.

Tied And Smeared

"At about 2 o'clock this morning, he related, they reached the woods, carried him from the car tied him, and stripped him to the waist. They then removed Greer's shoes, rubbed his body with the molasses and cereal, and drove away in the car.

"It took about half an hour for me to untie the rope," Greer said. "Then I walked about four miles along a gravel road until I reached a school. The pump was working, so I removed most of the molasses from my hair."

"Greer said he reached U. S. highway No. 65, about four miles from the school, at daybreak. He then obtained a ride to Warsaw.

Sheriff Provides Food

"At the sheriff's office the student notified a bank in Ames, and funds were to be sent so that he could return to college tonight. He was given breakfast by Sheriff Eaton and permitted to sleep in the press room of the Benton County Guide, a weekly newspaper.

"The fellows certainly surprised me," Greer said before he dozed off. "But I've seen rougher things done in the navy, I guess.'"

OBITUARIES

Mike Doyle

Mike Doyle, 84, was found dead at his home 715 South Lafayette avenue about 7:45 o'clock Saturday morning by Mrs. Bernadine Thornton, who had gone to his room to see how he was feeling. Police were notified and after making an investigation notified Dr. K. L. Holdren, coroner who viewed the body.

Mr. Doyle was attended by Dr. D. R. Edwards about midnight, Friday, who was called to the residence because of the illness of Mr. Doyle. Dr. Holdren stated an inquest was not necessary.

93-Year-Old Negro Missing From Home Since Friday

Issac Webb, 93-year-old Negro, is missing and has not been heard from since Friday morning when he told his granddaughter Bertha Webb, 317 East St. Louis street, that he was going fishing. He was seen on Highway 50 about 8:15 o'clock Friday night near the old Missouri Pacific lake east of La Monte.

He was seen by Clarence Bloss who was headed east on Highway 50 near the lake. At that time, it was reported he was in the middle of the pavement. He was accompanied by his little brown and white dog and was carrying a small package.

The dog was found beside the highway near the lake, Saturday, by persons who went to that vicinity to look for him. There was no traces which might have indicated he had walked over to the lake.

About 3 o'clock Saturday afternoon a man walked into the police station and reported that another man told him he saw a Negro lying on the bank of Muddy creek, near the highway bridge and that he was just lying there as if he was resting. When the Highway Patrol could not be contacted, and no report was received from the Sheriff's office, a Sedalia police car accompanied by a reporter went to the scene and made a search of the vicinity but likewise could find no trace of the man.

Later the Highway Patrol went to the vicinity and made an extensive search and could not locate anyone who had seen him nor were there any traces that a man had been on the bank, lying down.

Rear Engine Tractor On Display Here

A new type farm tractor is now on display at Wahrenbrock Implement Co., local Allis-Chalmers dealer. Melvin F. Wahrenbrock predicts it may replace that last team of horses on many farms by serving as a shore tractor, and that it will complete power needs on many other farms.

The new Allis-Chalmers model differs from previous tractor design in that it has a rear-mounted engine with implements attached in front within unobstructed view of the operator. Moving the engine to the rear keeps the front of the tractor clear for mounted implements, any of which can be attached or detatched in five minutes. Even the plow is front-mounted.

Mr. Wahrenbrock points out that many farms keep one team of horses for a few seasonal jobs, such as corn planting or hauling. Although such tasks are few and far between, the horses "eat their heads off" all year long, and at present feed prices, "that ain't hay." The new tractor, he says, will do such work on 2 to 3 quarts of fuel an hour—and eats only when it works. The owner just presses the starter button, with on currying, harnessing or hitching up.

It was said that this is the first riding tractor to answer the needs of part time farmers, of which there are now more than one million in this country. The company's slogan for the tractor is: "For some jobs on all farms and all jobs on some farms." The new tractor is pictured in Wahrenbrocks Implement company's advertisement in this issue.

File Charges Against Three At University

questioned, Lang said.

Served as Dean

Johnston a full professor on the University's faculty and who recently served as acting Dean of Journalism during the absence of Dr. Frank L. Mott, sat on the rostrum at the school of Journalism and participated in the annual awards to honor students.

Johnston, who had been sought throughout the morning by State Highway patrolmen and police, walked into the Prosecuting attorney's office this afternoon and surrendered on the warrant, charging him with sodomy.

Heathman, who holds both Bachelor's and Master's degrees in Agriculture from the University, was quoted by Lang as saying he first met Johnston two years ago after a meeting a few days earlier with Coots. Since then, Heathman was quoted, he and Johnston have engaged in homosexual activities on an average of every other week.

Implicated Veteran

Heathman was arrested, Lang said, after Coots had made a statement implicating the World War II veteran. State Highway Patrolmen arrested Heathman at Rolla, kept him in the Cole county jail at Jefferson City last night and brought him here today.

Coots, Lang said, insisted that he had had no abnormal relations with Johnston for the last six years, but admitted that he had watched Johnston in bed in his apartment with other men.

Lang's investigation began six months ago when, he said, questioning in a robbery case, unrelated to principals in today's development, brought hints of a homosexual ring.

Lang said he had asked University of Missouri officials to furnish funds for a private investigation to go into the student angle, and at first the request was approved but later he was notified that it had been turned down.

No Comment

University of Missouri officials declined to comment upon Lang's statement or to discuss the affair.

A University official, who declined to be quoted, told a newspaperman privately that the University had made an investigation two years ago, but that the matter was dropped for lack of evidence.

Heathman, Lang said, told him that the most recent party was held at Johnston's apartment May 23. The prosecuting attorney added that others had told him of more recent relations with Johnston.

Johnston has been a member of the University of Missouri's faculty since 1924, except for a year as a journalism instructor at the University as Wisconsin and a year at the Medill School of Journalism at Northwestern University.

Inquiry Friday

Chenoweth said a House Expenditures subcommittee which he heads will start a general investigation tomorrow.

"We have had a lot of complaints," Chenoweth told newsmen. "We want to find out who is responsible for these programs and for some of the script that has been going out at the taxpayers' expense."

Chenoweth said officials in charge of the foreign information program will be the first witnesses.

The programs which stirred up Congress were prepared and broadcast by the National Broadcasting company for Voice of America.

Senator Capehart (R-Ind) read some of the scripts to the Senate yesterday.

Those which particularly angered Congress members were translations of Spanish-language broadcasts to Latin-America.

Brooks Statement

William F. Brooks, NBC vice-president, gave the network's side in a statement at New York last night.

Brooks explained that at the time of the broadcasts "changes were being made in the operational set-up of the Voice of America and as a result personnel was not available to provide English translations so that the scripts could be checked in English." He added that NBC could review only the Spanish texts.

"The supervisor who was employed to review the Spanish texts unfortunately permitted these texts to go on the air in Spanish," Brooks said. "As soon as the matter came to NBC's attention the writer of the scripts was dismissed and the supervisor x x x was relieved of his post."

A State Department official said the department gives the networks an idea of the kind of program wanted, but has neither funds nor facilities to supervise the job. He added that the programs are checked on a sample basis.

Plan Added Trade Restriction

By J. M. Roberts, Jr.
AP Foreign Affairs Analyst

The United States apparently is moving to adjust the conflict between the Marshall plan and heavy American restrictions on trade with the Russian sphere in Europe.

At their meeting in Paris last fall the western nations accepted as fundamental that much of the recovery plan's success would depend on increased trade with eastern Europe.

But at the same time the United States was determined not to strengthen the Soviet hand, either economically or militarily.

It was understood, however, that the policy would be kept elastic pending the time when the need of economic cooperation with the west would tend to pull the eastern satellite countries from behind the iron curtain.

Not it is indicated that the U. S. is re-surveying the whole field of export controls. Shipment of nearly $4,000,000 worth of industrial equipment to Finland has been authorized, and there are reports that this is merely the first step in resumption of trade with the satellites. Poland may get the $1,000,000 shipment of mining machinery which was halted when a typical Communist-style election locked her fast in Moscow's grip.

The Finnish deal is obviously designed to strengthen the Helsinki government's hand against the Communist campaign for greater power there. But there is a considerable school of thought which has always contended that the necessity of trade, not political penetration, would eventually tear the greatest holes in the iron curtain.

Britain, even while gradually adopting the U. S. line that you can't do political business with Stalin, has never lost sight of this trade possibility. She has continued to increase her business both with Russia and the satellites, and has encouraged the shipment of Polish coal and other eastern products to western Europe. Britain is even reported to have an agreement whereby she acts somewhat the role of purchasing agent, putting Russian traders in touch with world supplies.

None of this means that there is any possibility of including Russia or the satellites in the European recovery program.

Any exports to the Russian sphere will be allocated for the purpose of producing a return to western Europe and will be limited to fields where it is least likely to help Russian military preparations.

The program might even develop into something of an offensive, tending to bring the satellites back into Europe. Far from representing a slackening of the cold war, it may actually mean intensification.

Miss Kipp Weds Raymond Witte

In an impressive church service, Sunday afternoon, May 23, Miss Mabel Kipp, eldest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Fred Kipp of near Stover, became the bride of Mr. Raymond Witte, son of Mr. C. A. Witte.

The marriage vows were read by the Rev. J. C. Schedler of the St. Paul's Lutheran church of Stover, using the double ring ceremony. The bride was given away by her father.

She wore a white satin gown with lace trim, her full length veil was held in place with a crown of white beads. She carried a shower bouquet of white gladiolus. The altar was decorated with mixed flowers and ferns.

The wedding march was played by Prof. E. H. Dieckhoff.

Miss DeLeah Kipp, sister of the bride, was maid of honor. She wore a gown of light pink, fashioned like the bride's, and carried a colonial bouquet of pink gladiolus. The bridesmaid, also a sister of the bride wore a gown of aqua with a colonial bouquet of peach color gladiolus. The flower girl was Miss Elsie Ehlers, niece of the bridegroom, wore a formal dress of gold with white ribbons and carried a colored basket of roses. The best man was Emnett Spearing of Kansas City.

Mrs. Kipp, mother of the bride, wore a dress of black crepe with white accessories and a corsage of white and red roses.

As the bridal party left the altar the school children sang the hymn, "Jesus Leads Thou On."

A reception followed the ceremony at the home of the bride's parents, with about one hundred guests being present.

A three tier wedding cake was decorated with pink and white rose buds, topped with a minature bride and groom. After the dinner, a large crowd of charivariers honored the young couple.

The bride is a graduate of the Stover high school, class of 1944. She taught school at Bunker Hill for one year and for the past three years, taught the primary grade at the Lutheran Parochial school. She attended Concordia Teachers College in River Forest, Ill.

The bridegroom attended Stover high school, and has been employed with his father on the farm, at the present time being engaged in the milk trucking business.

They have an apartment at the Etwell Ehlers residence.

Dewey Happy About Reports

ALBANY, N. Y., May 27—(AP)—Gov. Thomas E. Dewey arrived home today saying he was "happy" about published reports that he would receive the second choice support of a majority of New Jersey's delegates to the Republican National Convention.

The Governor, in the wake of a western campaign tour, spent yesterday in New Jersey seeking support of his candidacy for the presidential nomination.

New Jersey party leaders remained silent on the course the delegation will follow after a first-ballot vote for Governor Driscoll, but there were conflicting reports to to whom the delegates would favor in subsequent voting.

Headed For an Agreement

LONDON, May 27.—(AP)—A six-nation deadlock over Western Germany's future was broken today and negotiators appeared headed for full agreement on setting up a provisional government.

Diplomatic officials said the break—in an economic impasse—came last night when the delegates concurred on broad powers for an international control board over the mineral resources of the Ruhr.

The deadlock, caused by French objection to the plan for reshaping Western Germany's future, had threatened to cause failure of the talks—involving the United States, Britain, France, Belgium, the Netherlands and Luxembourg.

Informants said France agreed to the Ruhr international authority for control over allocations of iron ore, coal and coke after the United States made concessions on French demands that safeguards be set up against the possibility that expanded German production might be used as a war potential. The chief concern of France—twice ravaged by war with Germany in 25 years—has been for her own security.

News Briefs

LAKE SUCCESS, May 27—(AP)—Arab rejection of a cease fire in Palestine created a grave crisis today in the United Nations.

Security council delegates generally anticipated turndown of the U. N. appeal, but when it came they seemed stunned.

Not one delegate spoke after the Arab reply was received last night. Warren R. Austin of the United States appeared to sum up the sentiment. He said the situation is so serious that it requires careful consideration of the American government.

The Jews had accepted the cease fire. Their comment was: If the Arab states want peace with Israel they can have it—if they want war they can have it."

WASHINGTON, May 27—(AP)—The Truman administration has sent the Senate Foreign Relations committee a list of Russia's major misdeeds to block a just peace.

It also has pinned an official "propaganda" label on Russia's spring "peace" offensive.

The list sent to the Senate group is reported authoritatively to cover around three dozen or more violations oby Russia of agreements which the Soviet Union has made during recent years with the United States and various other countries.

CAIRO, May 27—(AP)—A Jewish broadcast said today thousands of Arab and Jewish soldiers are locked in a furious battle at Latrun and Bab el Wad along the supply line between Tel Aviv and Jerusalem.

The Arabs reported last night 800 Jews were slain in the area.

The Jews have given no casualty figures.

The Voice of Jerusalem, heard in Tel Aviv, said the battle was even more fierce than the fight for the Holy City itself. It said the Arabs had thrown in reinforcements drawn from Jerusalem sectors. Jewish censorship in Tel Aviv blacked out details of the fight.

Quislings of The Red Front Threaten U. S.

American Legion Leader Tells Senate Committee

WASHINGTON, May 27—(AP)—An American Legion leader told senators today "100,000 trained and seasoned Quislings of the Communist front" now threaten the United States.

Paul Griffith, past national legion commander, made the statement before the Senate Judiciary committee. He asked speedy Senate approval of the House-passed Mundt-Nixon bill to curb Communists.

"We have today in our midst the largest fifth column of potential spies, saboteurs, demoralizers, traitors, and wreckers ever seen in modern times," Griffith said.

Aided And Protected

He said the 100,000 "Quislings are aided and protected" by an "estimated million or more fellow travelers, sympathizers and dupes."

Griffith testified the Communist party is "collecting a war chest" of $500,000 in an attempt to defeat the Mundt-Nixon bill.

"Every fellow traveler, stooge and deluded dupe has been thrown into the line," he said.

As the three-day hearing opened, Chairman Wiley (R-Wisc) ruled out "any political speeches"—by Henry Wallace or anybody else. Wallace, third party presidential candidate, has asked to testify against the measure.

Flatly Reject Red Protests

WASHINGTON, May 27.—(AP)—The United States has flatly rejected Russian protests claiming American airplanes have interfered with Soviet shipping in the vicinity of Japan.

The state department said today the U. S. reply to various Soviet notes of protest was delivered to the Russians by the American embassy in Moscow Tuesday.

A statement released by the department said the Soviets had objected to more than 50 cases of alleged interference with their commercial shipping. The department said that neither in the Russian notes nor in direct investigation by American authorities has there been evidence of such interference.

The American reply as not given out in text from here, but was summarized in the statement.

It said that Gen. Douglas MacArthur as supreme allied commander in Japan uses air, army and naval forces "to prevent smuggling and illegal entry into Japan."

Telephone Co. In Rebuttal

JEFFERSON CITY, May 27.—(AP)—The Southwestern Bell Telephone Company presented rebuttal testimony before the Public Service Commission today, seeking to support its contention that an annual depreciation rate of 2.50 per cent is too low.

Its chief witness was H. R. Fritz, Bell chief engineer, who testified at the PSC hearing into the company's request for a rate hike that would yield the utility an additional revenue of $3,250,000.

Earlier G. R. Gilcrest, a commission engineer, had testified that he believed a rate of 2.50 per cent was adequate and reasonable.

Fritz, producing a number of exhibits, testified at length on the method Gilcrest used in obtaining the composite average service life of the company's equipment and other property. Gilcrest had computed this at 27.94 years. The company contends it should be 17.37 years.

Senate Group Okays Oleo Bill

WASHINGTON, May 27—(AP)—The Senate Finance committee today approved, 12 to 0, the House-passed oleo margarine tax repeal bill.

Chairman Millikin (R-Colo.) said the committee wrote in an amendment to require that public eating places which serve colored margarine must post a sign saying so. He said the vote on this amendment was 10 to 2.

Chairman Taft (Ohio) of the Senate Republican policy committee told reporters that group will meet tomorrow to decide when to call up the oleo measure for Senate debate. Taft also is a member of the finance committee.

The bill would repeal the quarter of a cent pound tax on uncolored oleo and the 10-cent a pound levy on colored margarine.

It also would do away with license fees charged manufacturers and distributors. These range up to $600 a year in the case of producers.

Now It's up to Jesse James

SACRAMENTO, Calif., May 27—(AP)—The man in Lawton, Okla., who claims he is Jesse James can establish his identity by answering three questions, a Sacramento county man declared today.

Justice of the Peace Toll Narramore of Suburban Fair Oaks, was born and reared at Independence, Mo., center of the James boys' depredations.

He said his family knew the James family well and his parents many times helped hide Jesse and Frank James when the two visited their vicinity.

"If this man who claims he is Jesse can answer these questions," Judge Narramore said, "then I will know that he is really the Jesse James of historical fame."

"First I want him to name the man who operated the house-drawn ferry across the Missouri river near his home and to give its location.

"Second, I want him to tell me the name of his relative who followed him with the idea of putting him under arrest and claiming the reward money.

"Third question is what month of the year Cole Younger was discharged from the penitentiary, and who the person was who met him at Independence."
